PREFACE

The Fairchild name goes back in time through the centuries to England, Scotland and other European countries in its various spellings. The name appears in family genealogies as men and women married a Fairchild. Not until Timothy Marsh Fairchild published his revised edition of The Name and Family of Fairchild in 1944, was much of the Fairchild ancestry known in America.

My interest in the Fairchild name began when I was a young teenager, since I had access to our Fairchild line six generations back, information collected by my father and two of his sisters. After the loss of both parents when I was fifteen, genealogy was forgotten until June of 1972 when I spent a day in the Genealogy Department of the Onondaga County Public Library in Syracuse, New York. That day established the beginning of my twenty-nine years of Fairchild research. Within ten minutes I found our complete line back to Thomas Fairchild of Connecticut through Myrtle M. Morris' book, Joseph and Philena (Elton) Fellows. Then, I wondered, what else is there available on the name, and found I was committed to researching the Fairchilds.

Those twenty-nine years include further research at libraries, historical societies, county offices and courthouses across New York state. Our camping trips around the United States and Canada gained further access to Fairchild records. A journey to England in 1985 failed to locate place of origin of Thomas Fairchild who settled in Connecticut. W. Bruce Fairchild of Hilton Head Island, South Carolina, is in the process of writing a book on the life and times of immigrant Thomas Fairchild of Connecticut.

Through the encouragement of my husband, Adrian, my first book, Early Fairchilds in America and Their Descendants was published in 1991. This second book is a supplement, containing additions and corrections to the first book, children of the Fairchild daughters as known and continuing the male Fairchild lines from the eighth generation down to the present.

Because of the length of this second book, it was decided to publish separately the Fairchild lines out of Charleston, South Carolina.

EXPLANATIONS

This book is a supplement, NOT A REVISION, to compiler's first book, Early Fairchilds in America and Their Descendants. The first book includes the first eight generations of male Fairchild lines. This second book continues male lines to the present. Any information repeated in this book is given to identify the line or an individual in the first book.

Information is added or corrected following the consecutive page numbers in the first book, beginning with page xv and continuing from pages 1 to 509, and from pages 532 to 584. Corrections are indicated by underlining.

Numbering in the first book is carried on down in this second book. Following is an example and explanation of the numerical and alphabetical code used to identify Connecticut male Fairchild lines.

ID1-1-4-3-3-1-2-1 Todd Stuart Fairchild

I designates Thomas Fairchild of Connecticut, 1st generation.
D designates Joseph, 4th s/o Thomas, 2nd generation
1 " Timothy, 1st s/o Joseph, 3rd generation
1 " Daniel, 1st s/o Timothy, 4th generation
4 " Benjamin, 4th s/o Daniel, 5th generation
3 " Philo, 3rd s/o Benjamin, 6th generation
3 " Emmett, 3rd s/o Philo, 7th generation
1 " Wallace, 1st s/o Emmett, 8th generation
2 " W. Bruce, 2nd s/o Wallace, 9th generation
1 " Todd, 1st s/o W. Bruce, 10th generation

Numbers in parentheses indicate sources in the bibliography beginning page 939. Sources in the first book are numbered 1-613. Some references are not used in this book, but numbering remains the same, and numbering is carried on past #613.

Any person identified as using a middle name is indexed separately. Given names in quotation marks indicate use of that name or use as a nickname.

The line of Daniel and Amy (Platt) Fairchild is extended on pages 308-312, giving only new information not included in Gladys McCoy Wyman's book, The Family of Daniel Fairchild, Sr.

NOTE: The southern Fairchild line out of Charleston, South Carolina is not included in this book, but will be published separately.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My heartfelt thanks go to all the contributors who shared their family records with me. Their names are given with their families.

Special thanks go to my husband Adrian who first suggested I publish Fairchild research that was collected over the years.

Special thanks also go to those individuals who sent information beyond their family records, such as census, vital records, deeds, etc.

My gratitude goes to Mrs. Barbara Brown of Colchester, CT. who researched the Fairchild name for me throughout Connecticut for over ten years.

The interest and knowledge of Mr. Gerald J. Parsons, F.A.S.G., Librarian in charge of the Genealogy Depart at Onondaga County Public Library in Syracuse, New York when I began my research, was an inspiration for me.

My thanks go to the many persons who have referred other Fairchild descendants to me and to those who have placed notices of my book on the internet.

I am grateful to Ann Hege Hughes, President of Gateway Press in Baltimore, MD., for her guidance in the preparations involved in publishing my Fairchild books.

Special mention should be made of three descendants of the Charleston, South Carolina, Fairchild line. Sue Ellen (McGill) Suddarth and daughter Joni Beaty of Albuquerque, New Mexico and Merritt David Mullen of Ridgecrest, California were of much help in providing information on the Connecticut lines.

THE CONNECTICUT FAIRCHILD LINES

Information in this book on the Connecticut Fairchild lines and unidentified Fairchilds is added or corrected following the consecutive page numbers in compiler's first book, Early Fairchilds in America and Their Descendants, beginning with page xv and continuing from pages 1 to 509 and from pages 532 to 584 in first book. Corrections are indicated by underlining.

EMMA "EMM", d/o Thomas & Sarah Fairchild, b 30 Aug 1672 in ?Danbury, CT. Gary A. Boughton of Bethel, CT. has published in The American Genealogist, 69:224, a carefully researched article entitled Emm Fairchild, First Wife of Francis Barnum, and the Family of Her Father, Thomas Fairchild. It presents information on Emm and her sister Catherine Fairchild, daughters of Thomas Fairchild of Woodbury, CT., their marriages and children. Positive proof has not yet been found, but the conclusions of Mr. Boughton seem logical and acceptable. About 1690 Emm m. Francis Barnum, b. probably Fairfield, CT., s/o Thomas Barnum. Francis m. On May 13, 1702 Alexander Fairchild of Stratford and John Pickett of Danbury, "absolute proprietors" of land in township of Woodbury, which belonged to Thomas Fairchild, deceased, sold 8 acres to Joseph Hickok and Benjamin Hickok. Alexander and John also sold land to Joseph Hickok and John Curtis 1 Jan 1708/9. (Woodbury deeds 2:19 and 2:124.) John Pickett died 23 May 1712 in Danbury, CT. Catherine, his widow, and Francis Barnum were administrators. (See pg. 4 in compiler's first book for further information on Catherine, daughtor of Thomas Fairchild.) On June 18, 1752, Joseph Boughton of Danbury sold to Robert Fairchild for £3, "all the Right title and Interest which my wife Emm Dec. had", acrueing from the estate of Thomas Fairchild Emm Boughton was likely the granddaughter of Thomas Fairchild and wife of Joseph Boughton. She and David Barnum are children of Francis and Emm (Fairchild) Barnum.

IA1-3 BENJAMIN FAIRCHILD:
From the Petition for Lands dated 21 Oct 1796 to the Administrator in Council in Canada by Benjamin Fairchild, Jr.: Benjamin, Sr. was a true British Loyalist, "aiding and assisting all Scouts and other Parties.... with provisions, conveyances and intelligence". As a result, the Americans deprived him of property by destroying his land and burning extensive buildings, including a "Good Set of Mills", located on the North River in northeastern New York, providing observation of river traffic.

IA1-4 OLIVER FAIRCHILD:
Oliver's birthdate of Jne 1724, given by The Wright Record (10), must be in error. His death is recorded as 2 Mar 1815 Ellenville, NY., his age being in the 97th year.(52)(11) This puts his birth as ca 1719, placing Ruth Beach, Samuel's first wife, as his mother. Oliver was bpt. 28 Jne 1724, but was not necessarily born in 1724. The children attributed to Oliver are few, and the list seems incomplete according to this compiler. On page 20-21 in compiler's first book the known children are given, along with other possible children, such as Fulton, Justin and Oliver. Fulton and Justin are not found on any CT. or NY. census. Fulton had cattle whose earmarks were registered and recorded in Granville, Washington Co., NY. in 1795 (200), and Justin was one of the first owners of cattle in Granville to record earmarks in 1787.(200) Oliver was of Tn/o Greenwich, Fairfield Co., CT. (CT. deeds 1770-1822, Greenwich.) This Oliver seems to be the most logical person to be son of Oliver and Sarah Fairchild. (See pages 576-7 in compiler's first book.)

With overpopulation in Connecticut and land he probably could not sell due to revolutionary disturbances, Daniel Lewis took his immediate family, his parents and his six brothers and sisters and migrated in 1774 with the Lyman Colony and Military Adventurers to colonize British West Florida. This area encompassed land extending from around Pensacola, FL. westward to the Mississippi River, and from the Gulf Coast northward to include the present day state of Mississippi. Daniel's parents died soon after reaching West Florida. From Manchac on the eastern shore of the Mississippi River district, Daniel was granted 500 acres on the south side of the Bayou Pierre. It was on a trip to New Orleans in 1778 that Daniel was drowned while fording the Mississippi River.
Meanwhile, Richard Carpenter and brother Caleb had come from Rhode Island to Pensacola in 1765, and were later joined by brother Joseph in a mercantile firm. About six years later they moved their business to Manchac.
1779 was the year Spain gained control of that district from England. About that year Mary became the second wife of Richard Carpenter, and the couple enjoyed a time of peace and prosperity as Spanish subjects in West Florida, residing near Baton Rouge. Richard sold his Baton Rouge property and by 1785 had purchased property with a house in Natchez, MS. Here at Natchez Landing he owned a store. In March 1788 he purchased a plantation on St. Catherine's Creek near Natchez, and died in July of that year. Richard provided for his wife and his children in his will, written 14 Jul 1788. He indicated a house, with specifications, to be built on the plantation for Mary and the family, providing $500 for it. The slaves, livestock and personal belongings were to be divided among the heirs, and the Natchez house, lot and a tract of 300 acres were to be sold. Two of Richard's children by his first marriage, Elizabeth who m. (1) Charles Boardman and (2) William Darby and Mary who m. Dr. Samuel Flowers were named in their father's will.
The present-day Carpenter home, built in 1804 on Washington Street, and known as "The Elms", is one of the earliest documented houses in Natchez. As of 1996 it is the home of the A. Kellogg Carpenter family.

On pg. 40 is discussed the two differing birthdates for Eunice. Her tombstone age places her birth as 11 Feb 1764. The age could be an error, depending upon who gave the information. One of compiler's correspondents suggests that an earlier Eunice who died could have been born in 1756. Evidence that this Eunice is daughter of Stephen and Eunice is too compelling to ignore. Stephen registered the birthdates of his children with the town clerk when they moved to Kent, CT. See page 40 in compiler's first book for discussion.

IC3-4 EBENEZER FAIRCHILD:
Discussion on Ebenezer is on pg. 44-5. Since 1991 publication of Early Fairchilds in America, compiler has located Ebenezer's unsigned will, dated 21 Nov 1790 in Wilkes Co., NC. He gives "youngest son Cyrus" all the land on Lewis Fork and 100 acres on Howard's Creek on the north side of the New River. "Oldest son Abiud", "son Abijah" and daughters Salome and Abigail were to receive 5 pounds each to be paid out of the estate by the executors. Daughter Mehetable was to receive one bed, furniture and two cows. Wife Mary was to receive all the remainder of his moveable estate, that is, horses, cattle, hogs, farming utensils, household goods, with the use of the land at Lewis Fork as a widow. Afterwards the animals were to belong to Cyrus and the rest of the moveables were to be divided among the girls. Cyrus and Mary were the sole executors. The estate was settled in 1806.

Edward McMaster had a Pennsylvania land grant in Northumberland Co. PA. and enlisted in the Revolutionary War from there in a rifle company comprised of all tall men. When enlistment was up, he enlisted for five months from New Jersey, was captured after one month and held captive for five months. Expatriated, he went to New Jersey to collect his pay the end of December 1776 and married Rhoda two and a half months later. Descendant and contributor Elva Kluener believes Edward was from New Jersey and may have known Rhoda before going to Pennsylvania to work his land. In 1783 the couple moved to Pennsylvania where Edward had a "plantation". The part of Northumberland county where they lived became a part of Lycoming county in 1795. Edward applied for a pension for war service, #W2381. After his death, Rhoda went to live with daughter Jane in Tioga county, PA. where she applied for a widow's pension, #7930. In the application for a pension, daughter Jane made an affidavit stating that first-born Hannah was not a child of Rhoda. Descendants of Hannah claim that Edward's wife was Hannah Brown, so this was a first marriage for Edward. Rhoda stated she and Edward were married by a Presbyterian minister down from New York City to escape the British, so there is no record of the marriage.

IA1-1-1 JOHN CURTISS FAIRCHILD m. Ruth Lamson 6 Nov 1768 in Stratford, CT.
A number of sources now in print are in error stating that John Curtiss Fairchild's wife is Elizabeth Burch. This is discussed in compiler's first book, Early Fairchilds in America, on page 54. Correspondence in 1992 with Mrs. Eleanor Sniffen of Bedford Hills, NY., produced her NSDAR paper #348226 with verification that Ruth Lamson is indeed the wife of John Curtiss Fairchild. Ruth was the daughter of Nathaniel, Sr. and Tabitha (Hawley) Lamson, NOT the parents William and Elizabeth (Beach) Lamson as given on page 54. Some of the Rev. Samuel Orcutt's genealogies are in error, this being one of them, as corrected by genealogist Donald Lines Jacobus in his letters to Mrs. Sniffen.

Eleanor Sniffen is descended from John Curtiss & Ruth through son William who m. Hannah Wells; their dau. Susan who m. William Plumb (1797-1880); their dau. Mary who m. On page 121 there is an error involving David Halsey. In the paragraph on Samuel Fairchild, line 9 of that paragraph should read "Phebe (Fairchild) Halsey apparently died before David Fairchild" (NOT HALSEY) " wrote his will in 1801." The "He" of the next sentence refers to David Halsey who died at sea.

IA1-1-1 JOHN CURTISS FAIRCHILD m. Ruth Lamson 6 Nov 1768 in Stratford, CT.
A number of sources now in print are in error stating that John Curtiss Fairchild's wife is Elizabeth Burch. This is discussed in compiler's first book, Early Fairchilds in America, on page 54. Correspondence in 1992 with Mrs. Eleanor Sniffen of Bedford Hills, NY., produced her NSDAR paper #348226 with verification that Ruth Lamson is indeed the wife of John Curtiss Fairchild. Ruth was the daughter of Nathaniel, Sr. and Tabitha (Hawley) Lamson, NOT the parents William and Elizabeth (Beach) Lamson as given on page 54. Some of the Rev. Samuel Orcutt's genealogies are in error, this being one of them, as corrected by genealogist Donald Lines Jacobus in his letters to Mrs. Sniffen.

Eleanor Sniffen is descended from John Curtiss & Ruth through son William who m. Hannah Wells; their dau. Susan who m. William Plumb (1797-1880); their dau. Mary who m. Forrest Clark Fairchild (s/o Clark Lewis IA1-3-1-2-4-1), writes in a letter that Benjamin and son Peter were in General Burgoyne's army and owned land around Glens Falls, NY. The land was strategically located on the North River, where a sawmill was located, to watch troup movements. They lost everything, went into Canada with Joseph Brant and settled near Brantford, Ontario.

Peter's will, dated 22 Jne 1828, names son Benjamin, daughters Elizabeth Smith, Esther Haviland, Rebecca Merrill, Rachel wife of John Tyler, Ruth wife of Henry Wanzy, Sally wife of Willard Post, Polly Nellis (sic) and sons Peter, Abial (sic), Israel and Cornelius Fairchild. Peter was a minister and a farmer.

IA1-3-5-2 Samuel b. ca 1788 Washington Co, NY. There is no absolute proof that this man is son of Samuel of Queensbury, but year and place of birth suggest he is a son.

On the 1790 New York census, town of Queensbury, Washington county, Samuel is called Samuel III, residing next door to Peter Fairchild, his brother. The February 1995 letter from Opal Howey of Brantford, Ontario, a descendant of Benjamin through son Isaac, gives a good explanation of the discovery of Samuel as a son of Benjamin and Melissa. There is, Miss Howey says, "a 1805/6 deed of sale of Melissa's Ancaster township lands made by Daniel Fairchild and Daniel Springer. Benjamin Fairchild, Sr. had died by 1796 and daughter Ruth had married Daniel Springer of Delaware township, west of London. Ruth and Daniel Springer took Melissa to live with them, and Melissa had agreed to convey her lands to them, but she did not yet have her registered deed or patent, and she died without actually making the deed to them. In the meantime, the other six children in Canada had quit-claimed any interest in the lands, but the eldest son, Samuel, back in Queensbury had not signed off his interest in the property. When Melissa died without a will, Samuel therefore had a claim as an heir, but he too had died and his son Daniel had to join in the deed to the purchasers to clear the title. This he did by means of a power of attorney, as set out in the deed. This proves the relationship of Samuel and Daniel to the rest of the family that had come to Canada. Timothy Marsh Fairchild did not have this information when he compiled The Name and Family of Fairchild some fifty years ago, and apparently no one here had knowledge or recollection of Samuel, the eldest son."

James Barry Fairchild of Lachine, Quebec also came across this deed proving Samuel as eldest son when he revised Timothy Marsh Fairchild's 1944 revision of The Name and Family of Fairchild. In 1992 James donated to this compiler a copy of the revised manuscript, who then notified descendants of Samuel's line with whom there was correspondence. James is a descendant of Timothy Marsh Fairchild.

The indenture, dated March 19, 1805, named Daniel heir at law of Melissa Fairchild, widow, and son of the late Samuel Fairchild, deceased. County of Lincoln, Ancaster, Ontario, Canada.

Beverly Bowen-Bennett, a descendant of Horace Amos Fairchild, while working temporarily in White Plains, NY. as an R.N., contacted this compiler to offer to do local research. The "Fitch Papers" at the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society needed researching, and Beverly spent considerable time going through un-indexed material in an attempt to learn more regarding the fatal shooting of Samuel Fairchild in Queensbury. In 1791/2 a local Justice of the Peace issued a warrant with the illegal wording of "dead or alive" for Samuel, suspected of a crime. The posse had surrounded the house at dark, when Samuel was seen running from the house to the shed. Thinking this was an escape, one of the men shot him dead. Beverly went to the Washington Co., NY. archives in Ft. Edward to check further but was unable to find documents regarding the grand jury held in 1792 at Adiel Sherwood's Inn where Rufus Washburn, member of the posse who shot Samuel, was found not guilty of Samuel's murder

Beverly did find a document dated February 17, 1792 wherein Benjamin Perry was suing Benjamin and Peter Fairchild for non-payment of 26 pounds, dating back to November 12, 1787 in Queensbury. Two months previously, on September 17, 1787, Samuel had filed a petition or claim for 600 acres of land adjoining the southwest corner of Queensbury "in virtue of possession". Could either of these documents have any bearing on the so-called "crime"?

Anson b. ca 1796.

The 1790 CT. census fails to account for four of Alpheus' children born before 1790. The three females shown on the census are Lois, Abigail and either Olive or Jerusha, who may already have married at age 16. Males over 16 would be Alpheus and another male, but might be Stephen who was not quite 16. Males under 16 would be Edward, Gershom and Oliver. Where were Alpheus and Enos? Vital records of Connecticut prove these are children of Alpheus and Lois.

By 1796 the family had gone to town of Rochester in Ulster county, NY., along with Alpheus' second cousin Seth, wife Catherine and their five sons. Alpheus owned over 300 acres of land in town of Wawarsing, Ulster county from 1798 to 1817, selling his property after his wife died. He would have been about age 67 when the two families migrated to Indiana and Ohio, and he probably went with his children. Nothing more has been found on him.

Jerusha and husband, Levi Fairchild, were in Lawrenceburgh, Dearborn county, IN. by the 1820 census. Stephen settled in Tompkins county, NY. Abigail was in Ulster county, NY. in 1837 when attesting to the 1804 deed in court. Edward was in Dearborn county, IN., township of Aurora in 1820. Gershom is probably the Gershom in Aurora township, Dearborn county, IN. who sold land there 21 Jne 1827 and may have returned to New York as he also appeared in Ulster county court in 1837. Oliver appears on the Vanderburgh county, IN. deeds as grantee in 1818, as does the younger Alpheus in 1820. Enos remained on his farm in New York. Nothing is known of the two youngest daughters, Olive and her sister. If the sister is Ruby, a Ruby Fairchild, b. 1790-1800, married John Knapp in Boone county, KY. in 1820. Charles may be the Charles Mr. Plume speaks of as going to California and who had a son William in Portland, Oregon. Anson is probably the Anson who married Amira/America Gillet 9 Oct 1817 in Alexandria, Campbell county, KY.

Son Alpheus appears on the 1797 list attending school in Granville, NY.
Thomas and George Anson left home probably after their mother died in 1809. Plume(235) says nothing more is known, but George has definitely been traced and Thomas is probably identified.
Sueton, Jr. was a Pvt. in the War of 1812 in Carter's 101st Rgt. of New York Militia. In 1812 and 1813 he purchased land in town of Denmark, Lewis county, NY. In 1813 he bought land in town of Champion, Jefferson county, NY. and sold the Lewis county land in 1815 and 1816.
Marcus Brutus may have died in the Civil War.

These two families migrated at the same time to Ulster Co., NY., and four of Seth's sons and most of Alpheus' children later went about the same time to settle in Ohio and Indiana. Seth and Alpheus were in Newtown, CT. 1790 and by 1800 were in town of Rochester, Ulster Co., NY., having come from Connecticut about 1796. Seth moved to Otsego Co., NY. in town of Butternuts about 1807 and died there in 1815. After his death the four sons moved west.
Births of his first two children, Jonathan and Daniel, are too close together, as given in compiler's first book. Jonathan was b. 3 Sep 1767 according to CT. vital records. Daniel's birth is 2 Feb 1768 according to Mrs. Wyman's book, The Family of Daniel Fairchild, Sr. 1769 would be a more appropriate birth year for Daniel. Sources: (1A)(8D)(26)(71)(87)

Is Mary (Fairchild) Adams the daughter of John and Martha (Pope) Fairchild or of Dr. David and Sarah (Robinson) Fairchild? Mrs. Rachel (Cloud) Pond(15) said that "Sarah Robinson Fairchild, wife of David, took Mary in" after her father John died in 1814. What happened to the other four children, Mary's siblings? Why are John's children not mentioned in his will? Why did his will leave all of his estate to nephew Moses Fairchild? John added a codicil that wife Martha was to have a 2/3 interest in the real estate until she died, and thereafter it was to go to Moses. Nothing more has been found on John's and Martha's children except for Mary. Mrs. Pond obtained her information that Mary was daughter of John from Marcia Fairchild Adams, Mary's daughter.

IA2-4-1 EDWARD FAIRCHILD:
Source #561 tells of John and Joseph Fairchild, sons of an Edward Fairchild who, with others on 26 Apr 1779 were reprieved of hanging sentences for mutiny while in service of the American army in the Revolutionary War. These two men would be too old to be two of the three sons of Edward, son of Ebenezer of Newtown, CT. The story is that after Edward was killed in 1784 in a riding accident on Long Island, NY. while with the British, his wife and three sons returned to Stratford, CT.(71) Since Edward was only 32 years of age at death, his boys must have been under age twelve. John and Joseph have not been identified by the compiler.

In 1993 the family of Jonathan Fairchild was researched in depth by Mrs. Delite Gaddie, A.G. of Mesa, AZ., in the employ of Bryson Caldwell Cook of Chandler, AZ., a descendant of Jonathan, who shared the new information with the compiler.

The "Hartford Times" (CT.) query of 31 May 1944 gives Jonathan born 29 Aug 1744 Norwalk, CT. and says he had a brother Ezekial. Jonathan, according to Norwalk church records, was son of Thomas and Ann (Raymond) Fairchild. Vida Fairchild, researcher and former Historian of the Pennsylvania Fairchild Family Association gives Ezekial as a son of Thomas and Ann. Thomas sold his Norwalk land on 18 Feb 1779 when the family was living in Bedford, Westchester Co., NY. (This family is discussed in compiler's first book, page 27-8.)

The compiler still places James, Hannah, Stephen and Benjamin as additional children of Thomas and Ann, adding to the recorded births in the Norwalk church records for their children Sarah b. 1742, Jonathan b. 1744, John b. 1747 and Mary b. 1749. Added now is Ezekial b. 1754.

The Ezekial of town of Greenwich, Fairfield Co., CT., close to the Bedford area in Westchester Co., NY. could be son of Thomas and Ann. He was on the census there 1790 to 1810 and on the land records, selling his property in 1814. The Ezekial in the town of Danube, Herkimer Co., NY. on the 1820 NY. census has a family that accommodates the family members of the 1810 Greenwich, CT. census. Of Thomas' verified and probable sons, Jonathan settled across the Hudson River in Greene Co., NY., John settled on the eastern side of the river in Columbia Co., NY., Stephen resided in Orange Co., NY. before going to Pennsylvania and James and Benjamin both went to Oneida Co., NY.

Source 147 states that an Ezekial Fairchild was the first school teacher in Remsen, Oneida Co., NY., but no Ezekial appears there on any federal census. A tombstone in Fairchild Cemetery in Remsen gives Ezekial's death as 15 Jne 1827 in his 73rd year.

When Stephen and wife Beulah (Sherman) Fairchild moved from Stratfield, CT. to Kent, CT., he registered births of his children with the town clerk. Agur's tombstone gives date of death and age at death, but the age does not match the birth as registered by Stephen. The same situation occurred with Agur's sister Eunice, and the age for her on her tombstone is in error. This could also be true for Agur's gravestone. Agur is discussed on page 544 of compiler's first book.

Source #953 lists Matthew Fairchild of Balltown married to Patience Shipman of Sharon, CT. 11 May 1775 in Sharon Congregational Church. (Also a vital record.) Compiler believes that this was a first marriage for Matthew son of Agur, who died in Montgomery Co., NY. 1796. Letters of administration give Mary as widow.
"Balltown" could be in Massachusetts or it could be an error for Ballston, formed as a district 1 Apr 1775 in Saratoga Co., NY.
Nothing has been found to determine which children belong to Mary. Source #111EE gives Louisa as daughter of Matthew and Patience, according to records of the Schaghticoke Dutch Reform Church in Rensselaer Co., NY. If Sarah and Urania were married by the 1802 land distribution, they must also be daughters of Patience. The Matthew of the 112th Rgt., Albany Co., NY. Militia may be this Matthew. See page 106 in compiler's first book for discussion of Matthew and below for more on Lovice/Louisa.

d. 6 Oct 1809 Charleston, SC.
m. bef. 1800 Ann Ross b. 1774-1784.
Aaron was a blacksmith who may have served in the Rev. War. He is named in the 1776 will of his father, Gershom, in NJ. An Aaron Fairchild of Morristown, NJ. is on a list of those having letters remaining in the post office at Elizabeth Town 29 Nov 1786. He may be the Aaron in New Barbadoes twp., Bergen Co., NJ. in 1793. Brother Hezekiah went to Washington Co., VA. and Aaron evidently either went with him or joined him there, later going to Charleston, SC. South Carolina records mention Aaron coming from Washington Co., VA. Aaron is named in the will of 21 Oct 1809 of his brother-in-law George Ross.

In September 1991 while camped at Kings Mountain State Park, SC., compiler purchased a book by Bobby Gilmer Moss entitled The Patriots at Kings Mountain, published 1990, which proved that Ebenezer Fairchild and his two sons, Abiud and Abijah, missed that battle by one day. The Battle of Kings Mountain, fought on October 7, 1780, was the turning point in the American Revolution in the South and had, as its participants, some 1,214 Americans "who were possibly on the Kings Mountain campaign or were possibly in the battle". There were no Fairchild names listed. Ebenezer and his two sons are on the list of 81 Americans known to be in the campaign but who did not paricipate in the battle. In Abiud's pension application he states, "we then marched on to Kings Mountain and arrived the next day after the battle a little after dark at the encampment of the American forces about two miles from the battle ground."(35N)

Pg. 116:
IC3-4-2 ABIJAH FAIRCHILD.
Abijah's Revolutionary War pension application states he again volunteered the latter part of August 1780 and "was on his march to Kings Mountain when he was taken lame in Burk" (sic) "County when he was sent home on furlough as soon as the battle was over at Kings Mountain".(35P) See below regarding three of his daughters.

Sources: (26)(100Y) Mrs. J. Bernice Robinson of Eugene OR.

Bernice Robinson has a maternal grandmother of Murphy descent, daughter of Hiram and Emmaline. Hiram's first child was Nancy Murphy. The second child was Abijah Fairchild Murphy and another child was named Uriah Jackson Murphy, giving rise to the probability that Nancy Fairchild, Abijah's daughter, married Uriah Murphy. Living with Hiram and Emmaline in Roane Co., TN. in 1850 was Nancy Murphy, age 67, born NC. Nancy's age matches her birth year. She is mistakenly given as wife of Nathaniel Landsdown in compiler's first book. Nancy probably died in Tennessee between 1850-1860.

KATHERINE, d/o Abijah & (1) Sarah Fairchild.
The children of Abijah and his two wives came from Donna Williams of Kingston, TN. in 1988. Donna is a descendant of Katherine who married William Johnson and whose son Calvin Johnson, b. 2 Dec 1814 and d. 27 Oct 1890, is her third great-grandfather and the source of her information. The Wilkes Co., NC. state census of 1784-7 and the federal census of 1790 and 1800 accommodate the children of Abijah.

IC5-2-4 LEWIS FAIRCHILD:
According to Plume (235), Lewis received his commission in the United States Navy 24 Jul 1813 as purser aboard the sloop of war "WASP". This was the second ship of this name, the first "WASP" being captured by the British ship of the line "POICTIERS" and taken to Bermuda in 1812.
The second"WASP" was commanded by Master Commandant Johnston Blakely, after whom Lewis named his son. The ship sailed from Portsmouth, NH. on 1 May 1814, having previously captured eight ships on its course to its station off the English Channel where it captured the British Brig "REINDEER". On its second cruise six more ships were captured, and on September 1, 1814 it destroyed the British brig "AVON". "Sailing with dispatches for Savannah, the WASP captured the ATLANTA off the Madeiras and was last seen about 900 miles farther south. The fate of the second WASP is one of the mysteries of the sea."(1,038B) Plume (235) says the ship was lost with all hands in an engagement with a British ship, probably between September 1st and September 7th, 1814.

IA1-3-1-4-1 Hiram b. 1806 Ontario, Canada. NOTE that Hiram was given erroneously in compiler's first book as s/o Benjamin & Margaret Fairchild.

Benjamin was a Pvt. in Butler's Rangers, and after the Rev. War he settled in Townsend Twp., Norfolk Co., Ontario. A letter of February 1995 to compiler from Miss Opal Howey of Brantford, Ontario, gives the following information. A copy of a petition made in 1816 by Benjamin Fairchild, son of Peter, shows he was living in Townsend township at that time. "Benjamin had been born in Queensbury in 1783 and married Elizabeth Haviland, daughter of John Haviland, Sr. of Townsend township. In 1805 Peter deeded Lot 16, Concession 2 of Townsend to Benjamin. Benjamin and Elizabeth resided there, and were still on that property in the 1851/2 census, shown as ages 69 and 68 respectively. Benjamin sold (that lot) and moved to Charlotteville township, probably on the lot which he had received as a Crown grant pursuant to his 1816 petition."
A letter to Emma (Fairchild) Patterson from Arthur Henry "Rolph" Fairchild dated 24 Oct 1950 gives the 1874 death for Benjamin from his will, plus the names of his six grandchildren, children of son Hiram.

IA1-3-2-1 JOHN HARE FAIRCHILD:
In a letter of June 1985, Marjorie Hagar Brown, age 83 at that time, said that Elizabeth Jane (Fairchild) Humphrey, d/o John Hare & Elizabeth (Hager) Fairchild, was her grandmother, a sister of John Brant Fairchild.

He and his wife Olive (Oatman) visited her family frequently in Detroit, MI., and Marjorie grew up on stories of the Oatman family. Mamie, John's adopted daughter, visited the family also and Marjorie remembers her well.

Benjamin Homer Fairchild, s/o John Hare & Elizabeth, was raised in Detroit, MI. and began studying medicine in Michigan. About 1854 failing health sent him to California where he joined brother John Brant in stock raising in Los Angeles county. The brothers drove cattle herds northward to the California mining communities.
Benjamin Homer apparently went west on a cattle drive to California in 1854 when Apaches attacked in the Santa Cruz mountains of New Mexico and Arizona. Brother Rodney Ward Fairchild was killed. Benjamin returned to Michigan to resume medical studies and graduated in 1866. In 1864 he participated in the Civil War in the U.S.Navy and was assigned as a surgeon's steward. In 1880 he returned to California and practiced medicine in Pomona until 1886, when he purchased a large tract of land north of Claremont, later called "Fairview Ranch", and his home "Fairview Hall" which overlooked the San Jose Valley. Plume(235) says Benjamin had children by a first marriage, but compiler has found no evidence of this, only the marriage in 1876 to Sarah (Stowell) Aspinall of Detroit.

Family legend says that Samuel died at sea in the Civil War. He enlisted 27 Nov 1863 in Clinton, IL. and deserted 26 Dec 1863. Arrested by a bounty hunter on 9 Jan 1864, he was returned to his regiment and was mustered out 17 Jul 1865. Dottie Patterson believes he may have returned to his father in Ohio rather than to his wife and children. Chronic diarrhea was cause of his death.

An explanation regarding the accidental death of Harrison Wallace, Harriet's first husband, should be given. Harrison and others were riding in the baggage car when it was suggested it would be cooler on top of the car. While there, they were warned by the conductor of the approaching bridge, and at that moment Harrison was struck by the bridge brace. He died several hours later in Grand Rapids.

Dottie Patterson is a descendant of Mary & Leonard Blanchard through dau. Eunice who m. Floyd B. Lewis; son Loy E., a printer, who m. Ethel Nickell, a bookkeeper, and their dau. Information on the family of Stephen has been difficult to find. Census is the chief source, along with a given name to link it to the family.

Stephen is not found on the 1810 NY. census, but a Stephen is in Newtown, CT. for that state's 1810 census, unidentifiable except for the possibility of it being Alpheus' son who temporarily returned to CT. By 1817 Stephen was in Tompkins Co., NY.
Records of the Reformed Dutch Church of Wawarsing in Ulster Co. show a child Frances b. 26 Jul 1801 to Ruth and Stephen Fairchild, with the female spelling. A Francis Fairchild b. 1801 NY. was in tn/o Groton, Tompkins Co., NY. on the 1825 state census. Could this be Francis who married Abigail VanDyke and settled in Hillsdale Co., MI.? IA1-4-1-3 GERSHOM FAIRCHILD:
Gershom is discussed on pg. 142 of first book. The compiler has had a change of mind in saying Gershom probably remained in New York, and believes now that he went to Indiana. He is on the 1810 NY. census in Marbletown, Ulster Co. On 17 Aug 1816 the sheriff sold Gershom's land to Alpheus Fairchild to satisfy a judgment against Gershom. After that he may have gone to Indiana with the families, as a Gershom is recorded as selling land on 21 Jne 1827 in Aurora, Dearborn Co. where brother Edward had located by 1820. Ten years later in 1837 he, sister Jerusha and husband Levi Fairchild, sister Abigail and an Isaac Fairchild of Newburgh, NY. appeared in Ulster Co. court to attest to a document of January 20, 1804 that it was valid in spite of underlinings and delineations. Did Gershom remain in New York rather than return to Indiana?

On the 1820 OH. census are 2 females ages 10-16, relationship unknown, along with 1 male under 10.

Oliver is discussed on pg. 143 of first book. He apparently went west before his mother's death in 1815, perhaps taking younger brother Anson with him because of Anson's later 1817 marriage. "The Western Spy" newspaper of Cincinnati, OH., date of March 11, 1815, shows a Dr. Oliver Fairchild and a Thomas D. Foulke and their business of selling drugs and medicines, paints and brushes on Main Street just north of the Columbian Inn. On 4 May 1815 Oliver purchased a lot in Cincinnati(822) and in 1820 bought a lot in Evansville, IN. He sold the Evansville property 15 Aug 1822, with an unidentified Harry Fairchild as a witness, and had sold other land in Vanderburgh Co. in 1820. Warren Co., OH. land records show Oliver of Cincinnati 13 Dec 1819 when he sold two pieces of land, one in Vincennes District, Vanderburgh Co. and the other in township of Lebanon for $15,000. On 18 Mar 1820, in two transactions, Oliver received from E. Harrison $8,000 and $5,000 for his claim to trading under the firm of "Harrison & Fairchild" in Cincinnati. Oliver was a pharmacist/physician. A Cincinnati deed of 19 Sep 1820 gives the name of Rosanna as Oliver's wife. Oliver is shown on only the 1820 census in Cincinnati's 4th ward with 2 males over 45, 1 male 16-26, 1 male under 10, 1 female 26-45 and 2 females 10-16. Other than Oliver and Rosanna, no one has been identified. Compiler wonders if Hulbert Fairchild, born New York and boarding at S. P. Gilbert's in Cincinnati 1839-1840, could be a son. Oliver sold a town lot for taxes 2 Mar 1824 and another lot on 10 May 1824. The last entry for Oliver in the Cincinnati city directories was 1839-1840 when he was boarding at the Exchange Hotel. As to further land sales in the city, Dec 1839 shows a sale to an unidentified Catherine Fairchild.

IA1-4-3-3 THOMAS FAIRCHILD: (NEW INSERTION)
b. 1788 Granville, Washington Co., NY. Left home in 1809 according to (235).
From the papers of Emma (Fairchild) Patterson(45) is a partial letter written by person unknown, which states "Thomas Fairchild, born about 1750 in New England or New Jersey, migrated to Ohio or Indiana. He is supposed to have had two brothers and three sons, possibly other children. The sons were Edward, Alpheus and 'Dr.' Fairchild, a physician in Cincinnati."
The letter goes on to say that Edward's first wife was a Hubbell (with a question mark) who died about 1811, shortly after the birth of her only child, Oliver Hubbell Fairchild, born about 1810 at Lexington, KY. He married 16 Jne 1836 at Palmyra, MO. to Adah Wilson Brown. As a steamboat engineer, he died in 1860 in the disaster of the steamboat "Fashion" near Baton Rouge.

Charles Oliver b. ca 1844 IL.; m. Sally Grigsby in Ironton, MO. There is an Oliver Fairchild in Zavala Co., TX. on the 1880 census, age 36, b. OH., herding cattle. Parents b. OH.

Henry and William are repeated on page 367 of this book.

The letter continues with the unknown second wife of Edward who had two children, Platt and Louisa, both born Woodville, MS. and further stating that Alpheus married and had only one child, Katherine, who married a Stone of Muscatine, IA.

From research done since this letter was written in the 1950's, we know there has to be some errors and a mix-up of names. Alpheus who married Lois Hubbell was born in 1750 in CT., and his children, among others, were Edward, Alpheus and "Dr." Oliver Fairchild. Indiana marriage records list a marriage of Edward Fairchild to Lucy Hubbell on 20 Sep 1818 in Franklin Co.,

IN., too late to be parents of Oliver Hubbell Fairchild. This Edward and Lucy belong with Levi and Jerusha Fairchild, Edward being their son.
Sueton Fairchild, brother of Alpheus had a large family. Plume(235) says that two of Sueton's sons, Thomas and George Anson, left home in 1809 and "nothing more is known". George Anson has now been traced to Illinois, and the compiler is placing Thomas here as possible father of Oliver Hubbell, Platt and Louisa Fairchild. Plume says Gershom (unidentified) is the father and adds a fourth child of Charles. According to Plume(235), this Gershom married (1) a Foote and married (2) a Hubble(sic). He is supposed to have resided in the South and to have died between 1810 and 1820 on the way to Vicksburg, MS. Perhaps this Gershom is the one who married Matilda Bayless 5 Aug 1817 Wilkinson Co., MS.(791)
It is worth noting that the given names of Oliver Hubbell's sons Henry, William and Charles are names of three of the sons of Alpheus and Rachel Fairchild.
Oliver Hubbell and family are on the 1850 IL. census in Hancock county and are discussed on page 142 of the compiler's first book. The compiler gives the family to Thomas, s/o Sueton, until proof is found otherwise.

George Anson is probably the George A. in Pleasant twp., Marion Co., OH. on the 1830 census. The family moved to Delaware Co., OH. by 1836, and on 18 Nov 1837 George purchased land there. In the early 1840's the family moved to Illinois where George died, leaving Catherine with young children. In 1850 all have been boarded out with different families. Rachael and her mother were boarding with Elizabeth Burke.

Source (657) in vol. 2, pg. 219, states that a school at Wawarsing (now Ellenville), Ulster co., NY. in 1798-9 included several Fairchild children: Terah (Zerah), Seth, Elam, Ruby, Julia and Harmon. The first three children are sons of Jonathan and Hannah. Ruby could be daughter of Jonathan or Levi, as could Julia.

The compiler has placed them as daughters of Levi. Nothing is known of Harmon. The names of the three sons are separated from the other three names by the name of an unrelated child on page 219 of (657).
Jonathan, Daniel and Levi, three of Seth's and Catherine's sons are on the land records in Tioga county, NY., buying and selling property in the years before and after Seth's death in 1815. Zerah and Seth, sons of Jonathan, also owned land there at that time, and son Elam was a witness to a sale. Of Seth's sons, Jonathan and Isaac were in Vanderburgh Co., IN. by 1820, Isaac purchasing land there in 1818. Levi had gone only as far as Dearborn Co., IN. where he and son Edward located with their families by 1820. Daniel settled in Vermillion Co., IL. and Abel, another son of Seth and Catherine, bought land in town of Canandaigua, Ontario Co., NY. where he remained. Zerah, Seth and Elam were in Vanderburgh Co., IN. with their father Jonathan by 1820, Elam purchasing land that year in Evansville.
After Jonathan and his sons came from New York, they established a smithy in Mechanicsville, IN., commonly called Stringtown, where livery horses in Evansville were taken to be shod. The smithy ran five forges most of the time, and various kinds of iron work was done there. Apparently Seth continued to operate the smithy several years. At a meeting March 1, 1819 to incorporate the village of Evansville, among the voters were Isaac, Seth and Alpheus Fairchild and Elisha Harrison. One week later to elect five trustees the voters were Isaac, Seth, Alpheus and Elam Fairchild and Elisha Harrison. Isaac and Elisha were among those elected.
In 1830 Jonathan and Hannah were residing in Kirtland township, Geauga Co., OH. where Elam and Sherman had located their families. In 1840, at age 73, Jonathan was living with son Sherman in Evansville. Hannah is unaccounted for on the 1840 census, though she did not die until 1843, according to the family bible. Jonathan died in Evansville in 1853. Son Zerah lived and died there, Seth moved on to Iowa in 1846 and Elam died in Ohio.

Levi bpt. 10 Nov 1810 Otsego Co., NY. The Cincinnati

City Directories for 1836 to 1844 give three entries for a Levi Fairchild. 1836-7 Levi was a cordwainer boarding at the Sans Souci Hotel. 1839-40 there is a Levi, b. NY., as shoemaker at Utley's. In 1843-4 he is a shoemaker boarding at J. Martin's. This is more likely to be son Levi rather than father Levi, who would be in his 70's in the 1840's.
(Cordwain is a Spanish leather used in medieval Europe for the boots of the wealthy.)

Levi Fairchild had gone from Ulster Co., NY. with parents and brothers to Otsego Co., NY. about 1807 and was there is 1810. He is on the Tioga Co., NY. deeds and was of Owego in 1814 when he purchased land. On August 6, 1818 Levi purchased 100 acres in the town of Tioga for $500 from one Joshua Monroe, land Joshua's father had sold him in 1816. Witnesses were Ruby Fairchild and Jedidiah Fairchild, and the deed was signed by Joshua Monroe, Jr. and Julia A. Monroe. Apparently Joshua had sold the land to Levi to keep it away from his creditors because, on September 3, 1818, the sheriff sold that 100 acres along with goods and chattels of Joshua and Levi to satisfy a judgement in favor of Ezra Canfield.
Joshua Monroe, it seems, had married Julia Almira Fairchild. The search for Julia first came to the attention of the compiler in January of 1993 when Carolyn Miller of Indianapolis wrote regarding Julia Fairchild, her ancestor. Julia was unknown to the compiler and it was not until January of 1997 that Clifford C. Neilson, C.G. contacted the compiler with information that Julia could be a granddaughter of either Seth or Alpheus Fairchild. Mr. Neilson was researching with the sponsorship of Kendyl K. Monroe, a descendant of Julia. Mr. Monroe has since published Charles Monroe, 1823-1873, of Posey, Vanderburgh and Gibson Counties, Indiana, 1997. Mr. Neilson and compiler shared their research on Fairchild/Monroe families, with permission of Kendyl K. Monroe, in an attempt to identify the parents of Julia. Then in January of 1998 Catherine Moye of Mount Vernon, IN., a descendant of Julia, shared her research.
Volume II of History of Ulster County, New York(657) on page 219 states that in 1798-9 a school in Wawarsing, NY. included several Fairchild children: "Terah Fairchild, Seth Fairchild, Elam Fairchild, Amos Guire, Ruby Fairchild, Julia Fairchild, Harmon Fairchild". The first three boys are sons of Jonathan and Hannah. Were the other three, separated by another child's name, children of Levi?
The 1800 NY. census is the only reference available. Of brothers Levi and Jonathan, only the latter man had an unidentified male born 1790-1800. Harmon could be son of Jonathan. Ruby and Julia are involved together in Tioga Co., NY. with Levi. Jedidiah, to be a witness to that 1816 Tioga county deed, would have to be at least age 21, thus born by 1795. He remains unidentified, since the 1800 census for Alpheus, Jonathan and Levi do not accommodate him. There is a Jedidiah Fairchild, carpenter, boarding in Cincinnati, Oh. in 1829(57), but he does not appear on any federal census.

Mr. Neilson thoroughly researched the Monroe/Fairchild families in New York and their migration to the southern Ohio and northern Kentucky areas. Joshua Monroe was a bondsman at the marriage of Ruby Fairchild in Boone Co., KY., across the river from Cincinnati, OH. Anson Fairchild, a son of Alpheus, married America or Amira Gillet in 1817 in Campbell Co., KY., just east of Boone Co. The Gillet name is connected to the Monroe family through Joshua's sister Belinda's husband, but Amira's relationship is yet not clear.
The 1820 IN. census in Lawrenceburg, Dearborn Co. has Levi and family residing there, just across the IN./OH. state line. Unexplained are the two females listed with Levi who remain on the 1800 and 1810 NY. and 1820 IN. censuses. Both Ruby and Julia were married by 1820.
Levi was not found on any 1830 census. He, wife Jerusha and her brother Gershom Fairchild apparently returned to Ulster Co., NY. court in 1837, joining her sister Abigail and an unidentified Isaac Fairchild of Newburgh, NY. to attest to the validity of a document with underlinings and delineations, dated 20 Jan 1804. Levi was listed as of town of Rochester, Ulster Co., NY. at that time. He must have returned to Cincinnati as he is on the 1839-40 city directory as residing at the corner of Smith and 6th, the same address as son Walter. His death date was not found.

IA2-3-4-1 GRANDISON FAIRCHILD:
Grandison was born in Sheffield, MA. and grew up near Stockbridge, MA. where Nancy Harris lived with her grandmother Mary Plumb. Mary had taken Nancy, a twin, as a baby to live with her to help her daughter with her large family. Nancy and Grandison knew one another growing up and were married when Nancy was 18. In 1818 they traveled from Massachusetts by wagon to Buffalo, NY. and then by steamer to Cleveland, OH., a four-day trip, avoiding a trip of many weeks by wagon. Their first home was a log cabin until Grandison built the first brick house in the area six years later. Grandison taught school the first two years, and he and Nancy gave their children a love of education. Three sons became college presidents.
(Taken from a high school paper written some years ago by Ann Myers, daughter of Isabel (Briggs) Myers of Swarthmore, PA., relating from family tradition and Grandison Fairchild's Early Settlement of Brownhelm, Ohio the events in the life of her 4th great-grandmother, Nancy (Harris) Fairchild. Sent to the compiler bearing the information, "Fairchild/Plumb-Harris-Fairchild, MA., OH., MS., vol.7, June 1978, p. 91".)

Benjamin was in Remsen, NY. in 1830. In the spring of 1834 the family moved to Medina Co., OH., perhaps accompanied by Benjamin's brother Elias with his family. That fall Benjamin and family went to Lucas Co., OH. in what is now Spencer twp., settling in a wilderness area five miles distant from the closest neighbor. Benjamin obtained a grant of land of 50.76 acres on 24 Dec 1834 in Lucas Co. Son Robert was executor of Benjamin's will, probated 1856.
In correspondence with Nancy M. Nearing of Arlington, VA., it was learned that Alonzo, son of Benjamin and Mercy, was a cousin of Raymond Scott Fairchild, son of Elias, thus connecting Benjamin and Elias as brothers. Benjamin and Elias are buried side by side in the East Swanton Cemetery, Swanton, Ohio.

IA3-1-6-4-3 Elias Rich b. 6 Nov 1843 Swanton, OH.

Elias is on the Buffalo, NY. City Directory for 1832, listed as a founder (one in the business of making articles of cast iron, brass, etc.) and residing Main St. A Raymond Fairchild is also residing Main St. 1832. It must have been after 1832 that Elias and family moved to Ohio, perhaps traveling with brother Benjamin's family in 1834. Elias was a lawyer, postmaster and Justice of the Peace up until his death. With deaths of Elias and Olive before 1850, the 1850 Ohio census shows Henry with the Augustus Williams family, Olive with the John Shum family, Scott with sister Loraine and Elias R. unaccounted for. Shortly after 1850, Loraine, Olive and Elias went to Kansas. Henry later went to Minnesota, and in February 1854 Raymond Scott went to California for four years before returning.

The Buffalo City Directory of 1832 lists a Raymond Fairchild residing Main Street and an Elias Fairchild also on Main Street. If Raymond went to Ohio, compiler has found nothing more on him; but if he went east, there is a Raymond Fairchild who purchased land in 1835 in town of German Flats, Herkimer Co., NY. In 1841 Raymond and Jerusha sold land there. The 1840 NY. census shows a Raymond Fairchild in town of German Flats with one male 20-30, one male 30-40, both engaged in manufactures and trade, a female under five and a female 20-30. Nothing was found in 1850.
Using Raymond as son of Ezekial, and as the male with Ezekial under age 10 on the 1810 CT. census in Stamford, the age of 30-40 would accommodate Raymond. Some years ago a Mr. C. G. Pond told compiler that Raymond lived in Paines Hollow, Herkimer Co., NY.
Raymond is a name used several times in descendants of Elias and Olive, and Raymond was the surname of Ann, wife of Thomas Fairchild, probable grandparents of Raymond.

Proceding through the families of Ezekial's probable children, note the use of names of Raymond, Rich and Scott. It is possible that Ezekial married a woman named Rich, as did his brother Jonathan.

Joy Fairchild died at age 26. Elizabeth was appointed administratrix January 3, 1781, yet the CT. vital records give October 31, 1781 as death of Joy. The inventory is dated May 21, 1782 with debts against the estate, including a debt to Anson Fairchild. From the lengthy inventory it would seem the family were well off. Rugs covered the floors, bed linens were more than sufficient for the small family. From the tool inventory, Joy evidently worked in metal, an engraver, perhaps. He was not a blacksmith as his tools were finer. (The administration and inventory papers have been double-checked, and Joy died late 1780.)

Following are the children of John & Mary (Van Dine) Fairchild of Luzerne Co., PA. After much thought and consideration, this compiler decided to bring this family from pages 565-570 in compiler's first book and place them as descendants of Abraham & his second wife Hannah of Hanover twp., Morris Co., NJ. There are too many coincidences present not to do this.
The Reformed Dutch Church pf Pompton Plains, located in the northeastern part of Morris Co., NJ., gives the birth of Marytje, daughter of Marte & Doortie Van Duyn, as 27 Dec 1757 and baptised 5 Feb 1758. Bill Burnett of Topsfield, MA. did the New Jersey research on church records.
Abraham died 27 Sep 1754 in Hanover, NJ. according to the intestate probate record, unfortunately naming only wife Hannah. (See p. 35-6 of 1st book for discussion on Abraham.)
Jesse Fairchild, probable step-brother of John, is discussed on p. 97 of the 1st book. He and Martin Van Duyne, Jr. each paid 11 pounds for land in town of Pequannock, Morris Co. Jesse and John are both in Luzerne Co., Pa. in 1810.
John, s/o John Fairchild of Luzerne Co., was Bpt. 23 Aug 1779 according to records of the Reformed Dutch Church of Pompton Plains, NJ., so there is proof that John and Mary (Van Dine) were in New Jersey before going to Luzerne Co., PA. after the Wyoming Massacre of 1778.
Abraham, first son of John and Mary, was born 14 Mar 1776 in NJ. Plume(235) states that John went to Pennsylvania with his wife and two sons. Peter and Solomon are the other two sons of John and Mary. Note the use of male names of children of John and those of the children of his uncle Samuel Fairchild of Hanover, NJ.

b. 17 Oct 1783 Luzerne Co., PA.
d. 16 Sep 1854 Luzerne Co., PA.
m. Elizabeth Lutsey.
When an old man, Solomon visited all of his relatives, gathering family information which Eunice (Fairchild) Spear used in her small book, The Family of Fairchild. In his will Solomon names his wife and all living children, including the husbands of his daughters. John Lutsey, father of Elizabeth, was a Hessian soldier brought to America by the British to fight against the Americans. Instead he became a colonel in the American Army.

To CORRECT what appears on pg. 223 of compiler's first book, Hiram Fairchild was married only once to a Mary Ann. Betty Winter has researched this confusion of two surnames for Mary Ann. The 1916 death certificate for Emmerett Fairchild gives her father as Hiram and her mother as Mary Ann Dewey b. CT., the information supplied by brother Orrin. The 1918 death certificate for Orrin gives his father as Hiram and his mother as Mary Ann Johnson, b. MA., the information supplied by "C. G." or "G. G." (The initials are almost illegible). Orrin had a son Clayton who could be "C. G."
The Life of George Dewey, published 1898 by Dewey Publishing Company of Westfield, MA. provides information on Truman Dewey, born 1786 Stockbridge, MA., who died 1853 Evans Center, NY. where Hiram and Mary Ann lived. Truman's second wife was Lois Tolman whom he married 30 Jne 1814 in Stockbridge. Lois, daughter of Ebenezer Tolman was born 1780 and died 1857 at Evans Center. Although Mary Ann, born 1809, was Truman's step-daughter (the Dewey book states that Lois had a daughter "Mary Ann Tolman"), she could have gone by the name of Dewey. Could Lois have had a previous marriage to a Johnson and changed her name back to Tolman?
Betty Winter says oral family tradition tells of Mary Ann being raised in an Indian mission. Contact with J. Sheldon Fisher of Fishers, NY, former Ontario County Historian and curator of Valentown Museum north of Victor, NY., says that Asher Wright (or Bliss) ran an Indian mission school prior to 1830 when the Cattaraugus Indian Reservation was laid out.

Barbara Palmer of San Diego, CA. in 1979, gave her ancestors as Henry Fairchild and Margaret Petrie, parents of Richard according to his death certificate. There is a Henry on the 1840 OH. census in Conneaut, Ashtabula Co., age 50 to 60, but family members do not match up. Matthew and family do match the census in Ashtabula Co. The 1850 PA. census in Washington Twp., Erie Co. shows Margaret, age 46, with her two children and her mother. Henry is s/o John & Sally (Mosier). Richard's birthplace as Little Falls, Herkimer Co., NY. may be where he lived but the Illustrated Atlas of Minnesota 1874 by Mary Hawker Bakeman, 1992, gives his birthplace as Schoharie Co., NY.
Matthew Fairchild of Montgomery Co., NY. who died 1796 had sons Heman, Sherman and Matthew. Heman lived and died in Schoharie Co., NY. Sherman lived in Herkimer Co., NY. and died Livingston Co., NY. In 1850 the widow of Sherman was living near Margaret in Washington Twp., Erie Co., PA. It would seem there is a family connection here.
Margaret's will, made in 1875 in Garden City, left real, personal and mixed property worth $1,500 to daughter Mary Appley.

Russell W. Smith of Grosse Pointe Woods, MI. is in possession of a hand-written account of the life of Martha Fairchild Cotton, written by her daughter Emeline Cotton Roberts, which relates information on Martha's life and her family. About two years after marriage, Jonathan and Ruth came to New York, their belongings on a sled drawn by oxen. They settled in the town of Phelps, Ontario county, where Jonathan is found on the 1800 and 1810 New York census. Jonathan died in 1813 after a lingering illness. Ruth is head of household on the Ontario county 1820 and 1830 census. In 1831 John was sent to Michigan to purchase land for his mother, 80 wooded acres in Chesterfield Twp., Macomb county. In spring of 1832 the family left for Michigan, but Ruth and son Stephen returned in 1838 to receive money left to Ruth by a brother. In 1850 Ruth was living with a Deitz family next door to daughter-in-law Lucy (Harriman) Fairchild Deitz and her family. Ruth died in 1859, with son-in-law Otis Cotton as administrator. Her probate names four living children and two grandchildren, those of John.

FREEMAN FAIRCHILD, father of the above two women, Hannah and Caroline, was son of Jonathan & Sarah (Howell) Fairchild. In 1990 Mary White of Orlando, FL. wrote this compiler to ask if there could be any connection between Freeman Fairchild and her husband's 3rd great-grandparents, John R. & Mary F. Lopez who went from PA. to NJ. about the time the Fairchilds went to NJ. John R. was born 1782 and Mary F. in 1792. Mary White states that throughout the years the Lopez and Fairchild families lived near one another. The compiler has found no connection, but there may be one.

In 1995 Miles & Joan Fairchild of Palmer Lake, CO., he a descendant of Ephraim's brother Barton, were in New Vernon, Morris Co., NJ. and visited the town hall, historical society and police station to obtain information on the family and the area. Miles reports they could not locate the graveyard on the John Oliver Fairchild property, son of Ephraim, but did find the Ephraim Fairchild house still standing. The Joseph Fairchild house (father of Ephraim) had been demolished to make way for a community park. Miles also learned that Joseph's wife, Abigail, may have been a Delaware Indian.

It would seem that the Eddy genealogy is in error as to the death of Enoch before 1813. This writer erred in suggesting Elizabeth died by that date and that there could have been a second wife. Enoch was on the NJ. tax records 1809-1814.

m. Elizabeth Catherine Magdalene Smith b. in NC. 10 Oct 1802; d. 29 Sep 1875 Van Buren Twp., Darke Co. Both bur. there in Old Abbotsville Cem., but the graves are unmarked.
Miles and Joan Fairchild (see Ephraim previous page) report that tombstones from the original cemetery had been dumped into a pit so burial site was not located. Barton was a farmer, bricklayer and preacher. Family legend gives the reason for Barton's leaving New Jersey was the pressure put on New Jersey inns to stop selling alcohol, and Barton was not about to give up his liking for beer. A descendant of Barton claimed that Barton was a "river rat", following rivers in Ohio and Indiana and working as a farmer, salesman, con-man and revivalist.

The William Fairchild in Kent, Litchfield Co., CT. on 1820 census, and in Cornwall, Litchfield Co. in 1830 is most likely William H., s/o Elijah & Diana Fairchild. He is not found again on the census until 1865 Tn/o Lindley, Steuben Co., NY., living with son Elihu and family. The 1865 state census gives William as father of Elihu, head of family. It also gives William's birthplace, age 76 and married twice. He is not with them in 1870 so perhaps had died.

Before marriage Emma worked for the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture after graduation from South Dakota State College in SD. As her children were growing up, Emma became active in the American Association of University Women, the League of Women Voters and later in the American Association for the United Nations. In her book on Emma Tyas Horsfall, she tells of taking "longer vacation trips until they had seen most of the country". It was on these trips that Emma gathered any Fairchild information she found. It was this immense amount of Fairchild research this compiler inherited in 1979.

In August of 1987 on our returning camping trip in Alaska, compiler and husband visited Emma and George in Sun City, AZ. Emma at that time had little vision due to macular degeneration, but had a part-time woman who helped her in her genealogy and letter-writing. Emma was a remarkable woman whose help and encouragement were of inestimable value to this compiler, and compiler is forever grateful for her generosity.

A combination of two probate records in Ulster Co., NY. bring this family together. Letters of administration for Addison 2 Jne 1866 and a petition filed by "only son William" on the estate of Fanny M. Morris 12 Jne 1882 show the relationships of Fanny and her children. The three girls are named in the petition with William and most likely are his sisters. In 1866 William was of Windham, Greene Co., NY., age 29.

The only proof lacking is the identity of Fanny's first husband. Sherman W. Fairchild was in Tn/o Marlboro, Ulster Co., NY. in 1840 with a male under 5, a male 5-10, a male 20-30, a female 5-10, a female 20-30 and a female 40-50. These ages match this family, with the older woman possibly his mother-in-law. This family is not found on the 1850 NY. census.

Mary Helen d. Logansport, IN. of scarlet fever.

In 1831 Thomas went into partnership with Calvin Woodworth in a store in Dorr's Corners, a hamlet in Washington Co., NY. The year's business proved a failure, with Woodworth spending the proceeds due both men. Thomas entered Gambier College, OH. and graduated in 1837, took orders in the Episcopal Church and settled in Cuyahoga Falls, OH. where he organized the Church in Hudson. After about twelve years he served two years in Fort Dodge, IA. then returned to Hudson, OH. and was still there in 1867 when he gave Asa Fitch the account of his life.

From the Academy Triforium, the newsletter of the Wisconsin Academy of Sciences, Arts and Letters, V. III, #9, Nov 1975 is mention of an article in the spring 1968 issue by Robert A. Rees regarding the friendship between Lucius Fairchild and Mark Twain. Lucius was Consul at Paris, France in 1879 when he met Mark Twain. Mr. Rees declares Twain's friendship with Lucius' brother Charles was more lasting. Lucius was one of the founders of the Wisconsin Academy.
The Minnesota Historical Society Collections have an account of Lucius(988D) and sketches Lucius made in 1849 to 1855 while on the Pacific coast as one of the gold seekers(988E).

At age 14 John was residing with the Jacob Grove family in Menard, IL. due to the death of his father and break-up of the family. He served in the Union Army in the Civil War 2½ years and, according to son Thomas, had two horses shot out from under him. John's granddaughter, Mildred (Fairchild) Fisher, writes that John participated in the Cherokee Outlet Race, claiming land on Oklahoma. They homesteaded in Billings, OK. about 1900 when the Cherokee Strip opened. John helped organize and build the school and taught there a few years. Mildred's mother and her mother's brothers were taught by John, followed by John's son John Emery. Mildred taught at the school 1926-7.

Clara and her siblings were sent to live with the Fairchild grandparents when the Civil War broke out, and Clara continued to live with them as her stepmother was mean to her. She was especially fond of her aunt Elizabeth Osgood who may have been a mother figure for her. When Clara married Ellis, the family thought him beneath her and disowned Clara. In 1884-6 the Wilkes-Barre, PA. city directories list Ellis as a machinist and in 1888 as a conductor. They owned a general store in or near Wilkes-Barre; and after it burned, the family moved by train in 1893 to Sandwich, DeKalb Co., IL. where they lived three houses apart from Clara's uncle William Fairchild and his wife Alice. Clara and Ellis lived in the same house for 54 years until their deaths.

Compiler has found no proof that Richard is son of Edward & Lucy. With these New York families coming to OH. & IN., and also found in northern KY., it could be possible that with Edward marrying in 1818 in Franklin Co., IN., just north of Dearborn Co., Richard being born 1819 in KY. and Edward on the 1820 Dearborn Co., IN. census with one male under age 10, that this child could be Richard. In 1825 there is an Edward, laborer b. NY., residing in Cincinnati on Front Street "by the Paper Mill". In 1830 and 1840 the family was in Springfield, OH. In 1847 Edward witnessed the will of his brother Walter in Cincinnati. The 1850 OH. census has Edward in Zanesville, Oh. where Richard is living.
James/James B. is found in Hamilton Co., OH. in 1880.

James Roe was a New York State Master Farmer, 1st Class former president of New York State Horticultural Society and board member of the Geneva, NY. Agricultural Experiment Station. He was a prominent New York State apple grower. The compiler and her husband knew the Stevensons when they operated an apple orchard in Cayuga, NY.
Grace Ide's life is described on page 344 of compiler's first book. In the mid-1970's when compiler and husband owned a large dairy farm outside of Aurora on Cayuga Lake, a notice about Grace appeared in the Auburn, NY. "Citizen-Advertiser", as being in a local nursing home and that her maiden name was Fairchild. The compiler visited Grace and obtained her Fairchild history. Not long afterward her son Halsey, who was visiting in the area for his Cornell University reunion, called at the farm. That was the beginning of a long friendship with Halsey and wife Ruth.

Ch. by 1st marriage:
George S. b. 1848/9 NY.

There is a Joseph H. on the 1850 NY. census in Troy, age 22, b. NY., a moulder, with a wife age 19 and a son age 1. If this is s/o Henry & Cynthia, this is a first marriage as Plume(235) says Joseph married the widow of his brother Jonathan. This would be the 1873 marriage in Oregon. In 1860 the OR. census of Dallas City shows a Joseph H. living alone. Probable career of Joseph:
1) 1850 Troy, NY., a moulder.(26)
2) 1860 Dallas City, OR., age 31, b. NY., a merchant living alone.(26)
3) 7 Mar 1871 appointed Indian Agent at Siletz, OR.; Commission to act on removal of Coast Range Indians to Siletz.(942)

This is in error as daughter Harriet was one year old in 1850. This source goes on to say he was educated in Michigan and Indiana, was a machinist, was in the Civil War as a veterinary surgeon until 1864 and settled in Cedar Springs and engaged in lumbering. b. 9 Dec 1832 Batavia, NY.

m. Maggie E. Sellig 6 Aug 1862; b. ca 1844 NY.
After Scott died, she and Faye went to CA., but they returned to OK.

After the deaths of Elias & Olive, parents of Raymond Scott, three of his siblings migrated to KS., William Henry went to MN. and in February 1854 Raymond/Scott went to CA. where he mined his own claim until Oct 1858 when he returned east to NY. to visit his former home. He then went on to KS. where he established in March of 1859 a general merchandising business, buying out two partners in the ensuing years, up to 1866. In addition to enjoying a prosperous business, he was an extensive landowner and was well regarded in the county.

In January 1862 when his business was listed under the title of "Englehart & Fairchild, Dry Goods & Groceries", he responded to a letter from cousin Alonzo Fairchild back in Ohio, son of Uncle Benjamin. He speaks of Benjamin Rich Fairchild, Alonzo's half-brother, as "Rich", having a fine farm which joined the town of Holton, county seat of Jackson Co., KS. Raymond says, "I will have my woman write to you when I get her". In August 1862 he got her!

Tim is a Computer Programmer for Computer Sciences Corp. and lives in Voorheesville, NY. It seems that Tim's mother, Janet (Hall) Willis, knew a Jenny Fairchild as she was growing up in Southside Oneonta. Her father, Robert Hall who drove a taxi, would occasionally drive Jenny to NYCity to visit her nephew, Sherman Mills Fairchild, the famous inventor of the aerial camera, Fairchild airplane engine, etc. Tim's great-grandmother and Sherman were 4th cousins.

Francis b. 1845/6 NY.

The 1850 NYCity census shows 2 Peter Fairchilds: 1)Peter, age 46, b. NY., m. to Jane, age 42, b. NY. He and son Anthony were both chairmakers in the 10th ward. 2)Peter, age 56, b. NY., m. to Phebe J., age 42, b. NY. They are listed with James & Eliza Schenck who had a paint store in the 9th ward. This Peter's occupation is listed as none, and he and Eliza are 3rd cousins.

Unable to locate a Peter b. 1796 NY., the compiler ventures to say that perhaps James & Eliza gave the census information since Peter & Phebe J. own the store but do not live there. If this is Peter, age 46, then the census is in error. Jane & Phebe J. are same age.

IB2-2-1-4-3 MORTON FAIRCHILD:

b. ca 1807 NY.

d. This may be Morton Fairchild, Brevet Major, who d. 3 Aug 1860 NY. Served with NY. volunteers in the Mexican War.(899)

m. Sarah M. Swartout 1 Jne 1836 Troy, NY.

She is d/o Henry & Sally (?Loveland) Swartout.

Ch.:
Abner Loveland d. 30 Nov 1856 in Central America.
In 1850 Morton was a customs officer in NYCity.
In connection with the name of Morton Fairchild, 4 legal documents were found by compiler.
1) In Troy, Rensselaer Co., NY. Morton Fairchild and Abner Loveland quit-claimed land in that county 15 Apr 1843, along with Benjamin Hatch, Alida Robinson, Cornelius, Simon and John Swartwout of Troy.(57/210)
2) Abner Loveland sold land in Rensselaer county 26 Feb 1848 to Fred B. Stowits. Named in the transaction along with Abner Loveland is Abner Loveland Fairchild, under 21, "grandson of Abner Loveland", and Henry & Sally Swartwout of Troy, maternal grandparents of Abner Loveland Fairchild.(70/239) How can Abner Loveland Fairchild be grandson of Abner Loveland if maternal grandparents are Swartwouts and father is Morton Fairchild?
3) A second deed bears the same names, selling to Alexander B. Price on 17 May 1851, same county.(79/135)
4) Administration of the estate of Abner Loveland Fairchild, which did not exceed $800, was petitioned by his father Morton Fairchild.

Ephraim had a dark complexion with black hair and dark eyes and was 5'10" tall. From early 1857 through Oct 1858 Ephraim wrote to his parents about his family and his life in Iowa. The letters begin with his account of the train trip from New Jersey to Iowa, and the ensuing correspondence gives a fascinating picture of life in eastern Iowa. In September of 1862 his letters to his wife tell of his life in the Union Army as a private in Co. K, 24th IA. Inf. His last letter to her on 28 May 1863 is from St. Louis, MO. at the General Hospital, New House of Refuge, telling of his chronic diarrhea. His death came nine days later.

Once when Abijah was selling a rifle he had made, he demonstrated its accuracy by shooting a nickel down that had been set for a target. A man watching this bet a quarter Abijah could not do it again. Abijah took aim and hit the nickel. Again the man bet it could not be done a third time and again Abijah hit the target. The man wanted to continue betting, but Abijah told him "You think I will get nervous and miss, but I tell you I can shoot it off every time all day long".(814)

Clarissa is not on the 1850 NY. census with Stiles in Tn/o Coventry, Chenango Co. "The libel", or petition, "of Clarrissa Fairchild by her next friend Frederick E. Tewksbury" gives her date of marriage to Stiles Fairchild and further along states that Stiles "has offered such indignities to the person of your petitioner as to render her condition intolerable and her life burdonsome and thereby forced her to withdraw from his house and family". As of the date of this petition, 16 Nov 1850, Clarissa had been residing over a year in Susquehanna co., PA., apparently with daughter Lucinda and family, before filing for divorce.(26)(28E)Teresa Wacha.

The original birthdate sent to the writer for Lyman was 4 Nov 1810. The death certificate for sister Julia negates the 1810 date as Julia was born 4 Aug 1810. Consulting the 1850 NY. and 1860 MI. census, an 1811 birth date is more likely the correct year for Lyman's birth.

Ellen is remembered as a slender woman of about 5'6" with reddish-blond hair, who was deeply religious, energetic, agile and scrupulously clean in all things. She was pregnant with her third child when the family traveled by covered wagon to KS. Until they could build a house, they lived in a sod-house with dirt floors which Ellen doused each morning with water and scrubbed clean. They still were in the sod-house when the last of the Indian massacres ravaged the area. The Earls were the only family who did not go to the fort for protection. Eventually their landed estate of 720A held a home and barns. Charles helped organize the 1st school district in Osborne Co., KS. In 1912 he retired and moved to Topeka to afford further schooling for Agnes and Clara. In 1917 they moved to Woodston, KS. (Contributed by Dorothy Kramlich) says Peter Kelsey was son of Abraham Brinsmade Fairchild, born in or near Danbury, CT. ca 1807. This was the time period that Abraham was in Chenango Co., NY. (196)(304) Until further proof is found, Peter is placed as Abraham's son.

Pages 261 and 578 in compiler's first book discuss Peter Kelsey Fairchild, a.k.a Philip. Mr. Plume (235)

In Montgomery Twp., Somerset Co., NJ. a Peter Fairchild purchased land from James W. Todd 25 Oct 1838. On 27 Feb 1839 Peter and wife Julia M. sold land in that township and county to Jeremiah L. Knapp. The 1840 N.Y. City census, 8th ward, has a Peter Faircild age 30-40. The family group corresponds to Peter's family except for a female age 5-10, unaccounted for in any source. Peter could not be found on 1850 census, but is found in 1860, 1870 and 1880 in Vicksburg, MS. where Peter was an insurance agent.

To accommodate the 1810 NY. census in town of German, Chenango Co., compiler is removing name of LeRoy and placing that of Peter Kelsey, as census shows 3 males under age 10 in Abraham's family.

IA1-3-4-1-5-5 BYRON L. "BARNEY" FAIRCHILD:
Byron left home after two years of high school, went to Seattle and worked at odd jobs while completing high school. In 1930 he prepared and printed a book of rules for the game of bridge and conducted classes in the subject at a Spokane, WA. hotel. Before he was married, Byron and half-brother Lemont, "Monty", enrolled at the U. of Seattle. Later, they purchased old gold in Washington and Montana, something he and wife Dorothy Shireman continued to do after marriage. Byron either built or remodeled houses for a number of years before returning to Seattle. They divorced and both have remarried.

IA1-3-5-1-2-1 LEWIS MERANTON FAIRCHILD:
m. Elizabeth Edmonds 21 Dec 1854 Shabbona Grove, IL. Mark Beam writes of his 2nd great-grandfather, Lewis Meranton, that he "was blessed with an inordinate amount of luck and a tremendous wanderlust". The family moved from New York to Ontario, Canada when Lewis was five, then went to Illinois by covered wagon in 1854. Lewis went to California to mine for gold shortly after his first son was born. After four months he returned by ship to Nicaragua, then to New Orleans and by steamer up the Mississippi River to Illinois where he began buying farms and building a 2½-story home. In 1862 he enlisted in the Union Army. He was shot three times in the same day in the battle at Perryville, but his brass buckle deflected one bullet, a pocket tintype and pocket bible deflected another bullet and a third bullet was stopped by his pocket book. He escaped each of the three times he was captured. In 1884 he moved with his youngest eight children to Julesburg, Colorado, where they homesteaded. His wife returned to Illinois about eight years later to look after that homestead. About a year later Lewis contracted a fatal illness in Colorado and returned to Illinois and died there. In later years Elizabeth traveled around the country to visit and spend time with her children, becoming ill at a daughter's home. She came back to Illinois, where she died.

Mildred & Ted Fisher were teachers, but in 1942 Ted enlisted in the Army Air Corps, teaching cadets their first 60 hours of flying. Mildred served as County Superintendant until the end of WW2, after which they both entered the Indian Educational Service on a Navajo Reservation in AZ. and CO. Due to Ted's problem with facial cancer, they moved in 1954 to CA. where they were employed as teachers, and Ted as a Principal, retiring in 1968. In 1999 Mildred at age 93 still keeps in touch with the compiler.

m. Mary Ann Kirkpatrick b. 6/16 Apr 1815 KY./IN. Probable parents are James R. & Sarah (Fauquher) Kirkpatrick. In a pension request for the war of 1812 James R. stated he was known by Kirkpatrick and by Kilpatrick, the latter name being the one under which he enlisted.
The 1830 & 1840 IN. censuses show a female in James' household that matches the age of Mary Ann. In 1840 she and Ira were living two doors away from James & Sarah. Ira was a witness to James' pension application for the War of 1812, and all members of the family are buried in the same cemetery close to one another. (Sent by Jacquelyn Johnson of Shelton, WA.)
The Republic of Texas Pension Application Abstracts gives Ira's age as 61 in 1875 when he vouched for Miles J. West, an applicant of Olympia, WA. TER., stating he first knew Miles in Mechanicsville, IN. in 1833 and between 1834 and 1836 when West worked for him as an apprentice blacksmith. In 1850 Ira was a blacksmith, farmer and surveyor in Center Twp., Vanderburgh Co., IN.

IA2-1-1-3-1-1 OLIVER PERRY FAIRCHILD:
d. 18 Jan 1908 Kenton Co., KY.; Highland Cem.
m. Lucinda Shepard. ONLY ONE WIFE! (Rosanna was wife of Oliver Fairchild of Cincinnati, OH.)
In his will, Walter, Oliver Perry's father, calls his heirs "sone Oliver Perry" and his wife "Susan". This would be Susan Wallice, a 2nd wife. Since Oliver Perry was born Mar 1832, his mother most likely is Maryann Pritchett whom Walter married 12 Jan 1826. A "Mrs. Fairchild" died 23 Oct 1832 in Cincinnati, and this is most likely Maryann.
On 25 May 1891 Oliver & Lucinda purchased land in Covington, KY. The "Covington Post" states that Oliver Perry died at his home on Madison Pike of grip. He resided in Covington, KY. many years and was in the billposting business.

Marjorie's father served in WWI and played cornet in the Army Band. She used her talents in WW2 in electronics school, the School for Civil Aeronautics Adm. and as a weather and traffic controller at Great Falls, MT. air field. She later worked at various occupations, including bookkeeper, a cook in their highway cafe, a resort owner and a farm wife. Robert served in WW2 and was 20 years in Army Reserves, has worked as a carpenter, mason, farmer and store and restaurant owner. They reside Park Rapids, MN.
Dorothy Vollman supplied information on her line from 1985 until her death. She and Don graduated from high school together, and in 1946 Don went to the South Pole with Admiral Byrd on the 4th expedition.

The heritage of Chester Munroe Wilson/Fairchild poses a mystery. Correspondence with Alicemarie Wilson gives the following history. Alice believes that Nelson E. Fairchild could be her great-grandfather, the biological father of her grandfather, Chester Munroe Wilson. Nelson had an aunt, Frances (Fairchild) Humphrey, who lived in Charlotte, VT.
Chester had a delayed birth certificate from the Ferrisburg clerk's office that gives his grandfather George Wilson, as his father and Gertrude Wilson as his mother. Alice gives Chester's birth as 24 Nov 1896, born to Charles Edgar "Edward" Lamay of Charlotte, VT. and Gertrude Rosalie Wilson of North Ferrisburg, VT. Baby Chester was sent to live with Gertrude's parents, George William and Sarah (Sears) Wilson of North Ferrisburg. The Vermont 1900 census shows Chester, age 3, residing with the Wilsons, but his surname is listed as FAIRCHILD.
Nelson E. Fairchild married Eda Swenson in April 1896 while Gertrude married Edward Lamay in June 1896 when she was four months pregnant. Edward and Gertrude moved to Charlotte, VT. and had four children.
Chester said he was adopted (legally?) by his Wilson grandparents, and he used the surname of Wilson. Alice writes that "Chester had very courtly mannerisms; every one considered him a gentleman". He served as a Cpl. in WWI and afterward moved to Massachusetts where he had a small store, then a restaurant and a motel.

Chester's son, Harold Louis Wilson, married Veronica Makiej; their dau. Alicemarie Wilson married Tony Reno. She has in her possession a memorial to Nelson E. Fairchild. He is described as having a friendly, sunny disposition. It is not known if Nelson was murdered in Manchuria or if his death was an accident.

Alicemarie Wilson, contributor of this account, teaches chemistry in a small New England college.

Bob has been of great help in providing information on the George Thompson Fairchild line. He is a 1945 graduate of Maryville College, TN. and is now a retired journalist, having worked for such daily newspapers as the "Washington Post", "Philadelphia Inquirer" and the "Pacific Stars & Stripes" in Tokyo. He is active in many genealogical societies and traces his Mayflower line to John Howland of the Mayflower. In 1993 the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge awarded him the George Washington Medal of Honor for "excellence in public communications for his work as editor of the Howland Quarterly". They reside Lexington, VA.

IA2-3-4-1-4-2 DAVID GRANDISON FAIRCHILD:
d. 6 Aug 1954 Miami, FL.
Dr. Fairchild was a world traveler and agricultural explorer, famous especially for the establishment of the 85-acre Fairchild Tropical Garden south of Miami. He was a horticulturist who was for many years Director of the Dept. of Agriculture's Office of Plant Introduction responsible for introducing Japanese rice, disease-resistant sugar cane, soybeans, Sudan grass, the date and other palms, Egyptian sorghum, long-staple cotton, Peruvian alfalfa and orchids, among other products. His efforts have helped to raise farming income.
His wife grew up amidst the experiments of her famous father. She was interested in art which she studied here and abroad.

d. Jul 1923 OR. - murdered.

Very likely the A. R. Fairchild who was murdered is Amos R. Fairchild, s/o Linus. His body was found on a sandbar in the Snake River near Ballard Landing 5 Aug 1923, with strands of wire twisted about his neck and waist, and his body weighted down with rocks. He had been missing from his place of business since 28 July when he closed the store and bought a ticket to Huntington. Son Russell and son-in-law Glenn Miller identified the body. The "Morning Oregonian" account tells of Amos' cheerful disposition and the fact he was inclined to keep large sums of money in his store.

Sherman Mills b. 7 Apr 1896 Oneonta, NY.; d. NYCity 28 Mar 1971. "Born with a silver question mark in his mouth" is a quote by an old friend of Sherman Mills Fairchild. His curiosity as to how anything operated led him to brilliant success as an inventor. Tuberculosis interrupted his sophomore year at Harvard and he spent three years in AZ. He studied engineering at Columbia University but never graduated. His accomplishments include the aerial camera in 1918 for the Army and a later modification of it to film organs of the body, the first cabin plane to accommodate Fairchild Aerial Surveys, the Fairchild airplane engine and Fairchild recording equipment, plus all the companies and corporations needed to build and retail his products.

Edward, with experience in fruit-growing business and with vineyards and wine-making in New York's Finger Lakes area, went to OK. in Apr 1889 with the opening of the Unassigned Lands for settlement. After Caroline died, he began producing wine from his vineyards. Acres of various fruit trees yielded fruit sales. He retired in 1907 to LA. to live with his daughter. In the 1970's the wine vault he had built was restored, is now within the Oklahoma City limits and is on the National Register of Historic Places. The vault was unique in its construction and supports built into the side of a sloping hill on his homestead property.

In 1888 Katharine left NYCity for Rochester, NY. where her father had obtained a professorship in geology at the Univ. of Rochester. In 1900 she graduated from Syracuse Univ., taught high school English in Albion, NY. & later in Binghamton, NY., boarding at the same house as her future husband. In 1905 she went to Colorado to be with sister Lillian who had tuberculosis and it was there that Katharine married Charles Lewis in 1906. The couple lived in Springfield, MO., Caney, KS. 1912-1928 and Coffeyville, KS. 1928-39. In 1936 after the death of this compiler's parents, Katharine was appointed guardian and took the compiler and her brother into her home. This occurred at a time when both daughters had left home and she and Charles were anticipating time for themselves, not the task of raising a second family. In 1939 when Charles retired as manager of Southwest Bell Telephone, all moved back to New York state, settling in East Bloomfield and later Canandaigua. In retirement Charles undertook door-to-door sales of Fuller products. With his personality and delightful Virginia accent he did well in sales. Both he and Katharine made sacrifices in order to provide a home for this compiler and her brother. In later years she lost her sight and made her home with daughter Lillian and her husband who owned and operated historic Valentown Museum north of Victor, NY.

Thomas J. Gebeau, a descendant of John, writes, "On April 14th, 1861 President Lincoln issued a call for 75,000 three-month enlistments. April 18th John Gilmore Fairchild enlisted" in the "8th Ohio Rgt. Co. B. Before the three months were up, it was evident they would be needed much longer". John enlisted for three years, and at the time he was wounded at Gettysburg July 3, 1863, he was a 1st Sgt. The Emmitsburg Road is about 200 yards in front of the angle of "Pickett's Charge", Mr. Gebeau writes, and John was posted on that road to the right of the center of the attacking Confederate force. John was found after the battle lying wounded in the ditch by the road with a shoulder injury and a fractured left tibia. A year later his wound had not healed and he was discharged with a total disability. In 1906 his leg was operated on and blood poisoning set in, causing his death. A marker for the 8th Ohio Rgt. is to day near the "Home Sweet Home" motel. John was 5'9½" tall with brown hair and eyes and a dark complexion.

Miles Fairchild of Palmer Lake, CO. contributed some anecdotes on this family.

After the death of first wife Sarah Kirby, Amos would cross the fence and fields to court Elizabeth (Gregg) Barber. After the marriage the families were combined and it was decided Dora would care for her sister and brothers and Gertrude Barber would care for her siblings. Neither girl ever married. Dora told Martha and her brothers their mother had died and they were not to call Elizabeth "Mother". This went on until Dora needed a dress for school. It took four days for Dora to come around to address Elizabeth as "Mother" in asking her to make her a dress. This Elizabeth agreed to do. Elizabeth and the Fairchild and Barber girls spoiled Enoch in not allowing Amos to put him to work in the fields.

One day when Dora and Martha were left alone, Dora decided to eat some canned peaches, something they were not allowed to do. When they saw their parents coming down the road, they quickly consumed the peaches. While preparing dinner, Elizabeth found the empty jar and quietly opened another jar and served peaches at dinner The two girls became ill and did not do this again.

Joyce, grand-daughter of John Calvin by dau. Bertha, has been a correspondent and friend of the compiler since 1979 and has provided most of the information on the line of Lewis Fairchild. In 1980 she published a genealogy entitled Edward Franklin Human 1842-1903 and His Descendants. She has done much Michigan research for the compiler. Joyce is an RN. who married Lee Miller b. 4 Nov 1936 LaGrange, IN., s/o Emmery R. & Mary S. (Chupp) Miller. Lee retired in 1995 from GM where he was employed in the Pontiac Division. He now keeps busy in his wood-working shop, making and repairing furniture while Joyce enjoys genealogy and various crafts.

m. Margaret Arpy Donnel b. 25 Oct 1858 Exira, IA. d/o James Henry & Martha (Honnold) Donnel; d. 31 Mar 1930 Anthony, KS.
William Dow, with brothers Lewis & Richard made the race for land when the Cherokee Strip in OK. opened in 1893. He related how he cut his wagon down to just two wheels and a seat, pulled by a team of horses. The three men staked land in Grant Co. and William and Richard remained on their land. Addie lived with her father when they moved to Wakita, and in 1941 William sold his land, reserving the brooder house, probably for Addie.

Silas grew up in "the Basin", hunting, fishing, herding cattle, sheep and horses. In 1927, as a Mormon, he began a 27-month mission to Germany. In spite of the Depression, he owned 360 acres of land by 1940 and began building his dairy herd. In 1942 he was elected to the Oakley Highway Board and later to the School Board. He kept out of debt and was devoted to his religion. A sense of humor shows when he wrote, "Let the bankers and implement dealer and loan people be my Paul Bearers; they are used to carrying me anyhow".

"Monty" joined his uncle Byron in Seattle, WA. who was the same age, and both registered in Home Economics at the university. Both eventually made use of this line of work, Monty obtaining employment as a cook on a steamship. He later joined Byron in Montana, buying old gold there, and in Washington. When Byron married, Monty joined brother Clare in business in Massachusetts building homes. He then went into the dairy and poultry business, was unsuccessful and moved to Seattle, WA.

m. (2) Clara Ellen (Graham) Lewis 1926, wid/o Eli E. Lewis, b. 3 Mar 1866 Greene Co., PA.; d.6 Apr 1963 Oshkosh, NE.

Mark Beam relates that Herman had moved to Colorado's southern Rockies but found the area unsuited to raising cattle. He then moved from Julesburg, CO. to Big Springs, NE. and became a successful rancher. In 1895 he established the famous "50" ranch on the north side of the North Platte River and later helped brothers Lewis and Arthur establish ranches on either side of him. By cattle drive from Ft. Hayes, KS., Herman brought the first black angus cattle to Nebraska. Later he moved to California and established a fruit and dairy farm near Orange Grove.

m. Nellie Orcutt 15 Oct 1908 Bruno, MN.; b. 29 Aug 1893; d. 12 Oct 1918 in same forest fire.
Dorothy Welch writes, "Ray and Nellie lived on a small farm on the outskirts of Bruno. There were forest fires in the area so my father had gone to check on them when he found Ray and his son in his arms walking alone. They were severely burned and the house was completely gutted. That must have been Oct 12, 1918 as Nellie died in the fire. Ray said that they noticed the fire as they were eating their lunch. They thought they had time to finish when a hay-stack near the house ignited. In their haste they pulled the doorknob off the door and were forced to go upstairs to jump from a window. Ray had Albert Henry in his arms and Nellie was supposed to hang on behind. She didn't jump. The child died on Oct 17, 1918 and Ray followed on Oct 21st."

John played French horn in the Pasadena, CA. Symphony Orchestra 1929-1935 and in the Los Angeles 1932 Olympic Band. From 1935 to 1951 he rose to the position of Vice-President of Operations at Vard's, Inc., making parts for airplanes. In 1951 he and Gilbert Wilshire formed Gilco, Inc. making parts for all kinds of airplanes and missles, from DC3's to the space shuttle. Products were state of the art in metal manufacturing. He retired in 1982. About 1999 the first prototype of the fax machine which John and a number of other men developed will go on display in the American History Exhibit, Age of Information, at the Smithsonian in Washington, D.C.

Eunice assisted in Gilco's business as bookkeeper and office manager.

b. Feb 1848 NY.
d. 1915; Highland Cem., Ypsilanti, MI.
m. (1) Amy(26)/Ann Mendell(380) 13 Mar 1876 Washtenaw Co., MI.; b. ca 1845 MI., d/o Mariah Horen, b. NY. who was living with daughter & Harrison in 1880 MI. (26). Amy/Ann is not on the 1900 MI. census. Cemetery records of Ypsilanti, MI. give an Anna Fairchild who d. 26 Dec 1891, bur. in Highland Cem. Her age is given as 52, thus b. ca 1839.(708)
m. (2) Margarett, b. ca 1868 MI.(1910 MI. census)
Harrison learned the butcher's trade working in his father's meat market in Rochester, NY. He went to Ypsilanti, MI. April 1873 and owned a meat market there 30 years. There is conflicting information on the names of Harrison's wives. According to (707) Ann Mendell was alive in 1906, so Ann may be a second wife and Margarett a third wife, although (707) lists Ann as first wife.

Correspondence with Audrey began in 1979. She was a great help in lining up descendants of Erastus Fairchild. She says she was born in a house partially built of logs where the old country doctor delivered her by the light of a kerosene lamp on a rainy night. She has always been involved in church work and did the bookkeeping for the local food pantry. Lester worked for 31 years at Caterpillar Tractor Co., retiring 1982.

m. Hettie "Viola" Foster 10 Oct 1915 Wilkes Co., NC.; b. there 5 Aug 1898 d/o Ulysses Grant & Laura Frances (Summerlin) Foster; d. 25 Sep 1986.
After marrying Viola on the front porch of her parent's home, Attie worked in Wilkes Co. building a railroad roadway and later worked as a freight handler for Norfolk & Western RR. in Bluefield, WV. Back in Wilkes Co. he purchased the "John Hamby Place". Dec 1923 found the family in Roanoke where he was a "spinner" in a silk mill, and soon purchased a house close to the mill. During the 1930's Depression Viola and the children returned to the Hamby Place but eventually went back to Roanoke. Before retiring in 1954, Attie worked for the N&WRR in the Roanoke shops. He remarked that retirement was the hardest job of all, since he enjoyed being busy.

It took exactly one year for the line of Clarence to be traced. Cathy Sargent did all of the paper work on inqueries, and we corresponded, with compiler trying to match up information Cathy sent with what little information compiler had. Considering the confusion of names it is amazing this line was identified so quickly.
Clarence took the name of Frank C. Wilson for his classical, turned jazz band. Clarence, a jazz pianist, was married at age 20 to 14-year old Bessie Wilson, a sister of Blanche Sweet, the silent movie actress. In 1906 he was working as a musician in Bisbee, AZ. at the time Bessie abandoned her daughter in El Paso, TX. Clarence's mother then was residing El Paso and vouched for the abandonment which Clarence denied had occurred. A letter dated May 27, 1908 from Clarence to the Matron at Deaconness Hospital in Los Angeles, CA. tells of Bessie's desertion June 1907 in Bisbee, AZ., taking Wesley with her. She evidently placed the boy at Deaconness Hospital and wrote Clarence from San Francisco. He, in turn, wrote the Matron telling of his two children and of his parents being with him. On Sept. 20, 1910 Clarence divorced Bessie, citing "willful desertion".
The two children, Wesley N. and Evangeline were adopted out separately and have been found by Cathy Sargent,who is a granddaughter of Evangeline.

Even at age 85 in 1998 Arthur Warren Fairchild was still seeking family information and anecdotes to help this compiler. In a letter to Art from Joyce (Shafer) Watson, Joyce tells of her grandfather Walter, who died the day before Christmas at age 38, in a fall while at work at a gas company in Binghamton, NY., leaving a widow and 7 young children. She recalls from conversations about Walter that "he was a wonderful, caring, hard-working man". Joyce's mother Ruth loved her father and relates that he walked with her, holding her hand, when she went to Sunday School. Betty (Shafer) Rogers adds that Walter's family lived right next to the big gas tanks, and that after Walter's death, Eva Mae refused to give up her children to the many who offered to take them. Eva's mother and grandmother helped keep the family together.

b. 25 Mar 1886 Binghamton, NY.
d. in a train accident 29 Feb 1912 Bergen, NY.
m. Viola Amanda Ross 17 May 1911 Bergen, NY.; b. 31 Jan 1889, d/o W. E. Ross. She was employed by the Bergen Telephone Co. over 4 years before marriage.
Charles was a 1910 graduate and valedictorian of his class at Cornell Univ. School of Veterinary Medicine. While returning from an early morning call during a rainstorm, he had stopped his horse and carriage to await passage of a westbound freight train at the public highway crossing at Lake St. in Bergen, NY. After the train had passed, Charles drove onto the tracks and was struck by an eastbound passenger train. Charles, his horse and dog were thrown and killed immediately. It so happened the crossing gates were deactivated after midnight. Suit was brought against the New York Central & Hudson River Railroad Co. for negligently causing the death of Charles. Viola received a $3,750 judgment against the railroad. 25% of this went to the lawyers.
Ch.;
Ruth Radcliffe b. 30 Mar 1912 Bergen, NY. She is mistakenly called Ruth E. in her father's Genesee Co.,NY. probate record. She married, had children and in 1975 went to Colorado to live with a married daughter, and was still there in 1985. Richard Howlett writes that he recalls Ruth visiting his mother many times as the two women were very close. Ruth was a witness to the marriage of Elizabeth Fairchild to Albert Howlett, Richard's parents, when they eloped in 1931.

Clarence was a mild-mannered, hard-working family man according to son Earl. He was a welder on the Lehigh-Valley Railroad during the Depression and WW2, often being called out during the night to repair a cracked boiler so a troop train could keep its schedule. Manchester, NY. where he lived, was a main route for shipment of war materials from the Great Lakes to port of New York. A year before retirement Clarence's job was abolished due to railroad's decline following the war. He took a job with the New York Central Railroad to complete pension requirements, and then worked at Garlock Packing Co.

Lee served in the US Navy in WW2 from Oct 1942-Jul 1945. Growing up, he spent summers on his grandparents' farm or his uncle Emmons' farm. In the late 1930's they moved to a farm near Ravenna, OH. where Lee spent "some of the best time of my childhood". In Garden City, MI. he had a paper route and in September that year ran away from home and enlisted in the Navy, serving as radioman 3rd class. In 1945 he and Patricia moved back to MI. where he entered art school, worked nights and later attended the Ringling School of Art in Sarasota, FL. He worked as a Display Artist for a power company, became head of the department, and in 1974 head of Advertising Display, Photographic & Audio Visual Depts. After retirement in 1984 he moved to NC. and began the hobby of carving birds and wildfowl, winning numerous awards. He also taught bird-carving in Tryon, NC. On a trip to Sarasota in 1994, Lee and Pauline met compiler and her husband for lunch in Inverness, FL.

One evening in 1947 when this compiler was living in an apartment in Rochester, NY., the doorbell rang, and upon opening the door found herself facing a uniformed police officer who introduced himself as Richard Fairchild of the Rochester Police Dept. He had come to the address to see a man in another apartment but saw the Fairchild name and rang that bell first. He explained he had a sister also named Jean Fairchild. Taken by surprise, and quite speechless at the uniform, the compiler recalls nothing ever came of the encounter Richard Fairchild remained with the Rochester Police Department, became Chief of Detectives and retired in 1974 as a Major in charge of Central Services for the department. He then became Associate Director of Security at the University of Rochester from August 1974 to May 1975. He worked as Senior Special Investigator of Health and Social Services fraud for the New York State Attorney General, resigning that position in 1976 to run unsuccessfully in the Monroe County Sheriff's election. He resides in Spencerport, NY.

UNIDENTIFIED FAIRCHILDS

Following are names of Fairchilds as yet unidentified by compiler. Care has been taken to try to identify each person, but there may be some duplication in the main section of this book. Due to space, many names had to be omitted. In giving new information on those men in compiler's first book, names will be followed by page numbers in the first book. In most cases, information will not be repeated. 1880 is the approximate cut-off date for those persons listed.

A. d. 29 Dec 1847 on the Ohio River near Manchester, OH. about 12 miles above Maysville, KY. He was of Wheeling, VA. and was 1st clerk on the steamboat "A. N. JOHNSON" when it exploded about 2 AM. He was blown 100 yds. onto shore, got up and ran ¼ mi. to a house which he entered, crawling under the bed. He lived only a few minutes after being removed from under the bed. (Steamboat Directory and Disasters on the Western Waters, Cincinnati, OH., James T. Lloyd & Co., 1856, pp. 151-3. Published in Ohio Genealogical Society Report, 18:99.

Abner's parents have never been discovered in spite of years of research by Alvin E. Bemarkt, s/o Alvin E. and Virginia Louise (Fairchild) Bemarkt. Capt. Abner of Morristown and New Vernon, NJ. seems the logical father, especially since Abner's birth would fit in with Capt. Abner's family.

DAN - A writ dated 7 Apr 1780 says that Dan Fairchild of Newtown, CT. endeavored to go over to join the enemies of the United States. He set out from Redding and went to Greenwich with the intention of going to New York. The defendant pleaded not guilty. The court case was tried August 1780. No outcome was found.(61D)

DANIEL b. prob. 1745-1750 CT. - pg. 548-551.
A deed in Weston, CT. of 29 Jan 1788 shows sale of a dwelling to John Curtiss of Weston by Dan Fairchild of Redding, CT. Curtiss had recently purchased the land on which the house was located, land that was in the estate of John Lane of Redding, deceased.(41A)
On 2 Feb 1789 Dan & Sarah Fairchild of Redding, CT. sold to James Sanford & Daniel Hill, Jr. of Redding, land they quit-claimed on Rock House Hill "from the estate of our father John Lane, deceased".(41A)
This Daniel is the only one compiler has found that is called Dan, so he may be the Dan of the above writ.
In 1788/9 Dan, Sarah & their 3 sons went from Redding to Shelburne, VT. during the winter, a trip of 6 weeks, arriving in March. They traveled by ox team with their belongings on a sled. In 1813 the family left for Ohio, settling first in Wayne Twp. and later in Rush Twp., Champaign Co. The 3 sons are on the 1820 & 1830 OH. census. In 1820 there are 2 males over 45 in Reuben's family, so Dan probably is one of them.(475B)

ELEAZER - Pg. 558-9.
Determining his date of birh is only a "guess", possibly the late 1750's. He may have been at Lloyd's Neck, NY. Dec 1779 during the Rev. War.(931) He served with the British as an Ensign in the King's American Regiment.(297) The name of Eleazer is on the list of unclaimed land for 1797 in the Canadian Archives in Ottawa. At the time of petitioning for land in 1797 he stated he had a wife and 5 children. He accepted some of the acreage but refused 1,800 acres. There is an Eleazer Fairchild, over age 45, on the 1820 NY. census, in tn/o Hague (later Morristown), St. Lawrence Co., who may be this man. Only Anne & Phebe are known to be his children.(297) Samuel is probably his son, living with him 1820. According to the 1850 WI. census, tn/o Geneva, Walworth Co., Samuel was age 64 b. CT. This places his birth as 1785/6 at a time when Eleazer was in New Brunswick. Samuel died in 1855, age 75, placing his birth as 1780/1, so the census could be in error. There is no proof Lewis is s/o Eleazer, only coincidence of time and place.(26)

In 1820 he was living with Eleazer, St. Lawrence Co. In 1830 he was in Tn/o Goveneur, same Co., and in 1840, back in Oswegotchie, with dau. Pamelia DeMott living between him and son Rufus.

Richard Harold b. ca ?1906 ?Springfield, IL. Adopted by Golden Garfield & Gertrude (Evans) Webster 18 Mar 1906 Whiteheath, IL. Correspondence in 1994 with Mrs. Elizabeth Butler of Salt Lake City, UT., tells of her first marriage to Richard Harold Webster, whose surname was originally Fairchild and that soon after the marriage his mother found them, and they learned what led up to the adoption. While his mother Maud was living in GA., her husband "drank a lot and was killed". She put the five children in an orphanage and went to Chicago to find work. There she met and married George Butler (no relation to Mrs. Butler's husband), and returned to the orphanage to get the children, only to find that Richard had been adopted out. The full name of Henry may have been George Henry, as Maud referred to her first husband as "George".
HENRY m. Rachael J. Beising b. 15 May 1867; m. (2) John A. Swaim in St. Louis Co., MN. & d. 30 Mar 1962 Fort Smith, AR. Henry deserted his family & may have gone to OR. They were divorced 18 Mar 1892. In Apr 1993 Mrs. Amelia Martin, editor of the Journal of the Fort Smith Historical Society, contacted compiler re Chris Fairchild who was taking a course that required family research. Results are here given in the hope someone has more information on the line.

JOHN FREDERICK - Pg. 570-574.
In 1995 Julie Mastin of Detroit Lakes, MN. wrote about some FAIRCHILD/BACKUS searching she had done on John Frederick/John F. B. Fairchild. According to adoption/guardianship papers he was born Feb 1800, his birth occurring in either Greene or Columbia Co., NY. He was age 14 when, on 3 Sep 1814, John Backus who had raised him petitioned the Greene Co. surrogate court for guardianship and adoption of John Fairchild. Apparently John Backus who had daughters but no son, adopted John Family tradition says John's parents died when he was three years old, and he lived with an uncle and two aunts of his mother's family. He was not treated well, ran away at an early age, lived near Seneca Falls, NY. went to Rochester, NY. and later owned a mill there along the Genesee River falls.

G. William Beardslee, an attorney in Greeley, CO., has added new information on this family. He is a descendant of Eunice, Tamer (Summers) Fairchild's sister who married Jabez Beardslee who also went to Town of Pittsfield, Otsego Co., NY. Mr. Beardslee owns the family farm, established in the late 1790's in the town of Pittsfield and has restored the family cemetery on the farm. Four burials have been identified: Tamer, son David and two small tombstones, identified as T.F. and C.F. There are guardianship papers from 1816 with Zalmon appointed guardian for Charles and Sally, as the children were receiving a legacy from the state of Connecticut. On 15 Jul 1799 Zalmon and others petitioned for a road to be laid out in the town. Zalmon's first Otsego Co., NY. deed was NOT 1800, but in Sep/Oct 1799. In 1830 he served on a jury in Cooperstown, Otsego Co., NY. Source: Cheryl Ann Fairchild of Mankato, MN. She writes that she has no proof as yet, but it is thought that Henry was adopted as a young child by a Bagley family. Perhaps this was because his mother, Laura Taylor, first wife of Lyman Fairchild, may have been killed by Indians on the journey from New York to Michigan about 1850 and Lyman had other children to raise. Henry married his two wives as a Bagley but, perhaps at the urging of his sisters, he changed his name back to Fairchild.
